Penn State Athletics chose to advance classes as though 2020-21 was a normal year of eligibility. Student-athletes listed as redshirt freshmen in 2021-22 did not officially redshirt in 2020-21, but would have in any other normal year. Extra years of eligibility will be marked on the back end of student-athletes' career (a "+" symbol will be added on the end of "Sr." to indicate the extra year of eligibility being used).

SEASON NOTES

SHREWSBERRY ERA BEGINS

Penn State enters its first season under head coach Micah Shrewsberry in 2021-22. Shrewsberry was announced as the 14th men's basketball head coach in Penn State history on March 15, 2021 and comes to Penn State with a wealth of experience with a pair of nationally-ranked programs and in the NBA. He also has two years of head coaching experience.

CORE RETURNEES

Penn State returns a number of familiar faces for the 2021-22 season. Graduate student John Harrar returns to utilize the extra year of eligibility granted by the NCAA due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Harrar earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors last season after leading the Nittany Lions with 8.8 rebounds per game and a 54.9 field goal percentage. Junior Seth Lundy is the team's returning leading scorer from a season ago. Lundy tallied 10.1 points per game, including two 30-plus point contests in his sophomore campaign. Seniors Myles Dread and Sam Sessoms will play large roles in the backcourt once again. Dread ranked first or second on the team in 3-pointers made in each of his three years as a Nittany Lion. Sessoms is set for his second season at Penn State after playing two years at Binghamton. The Philadelphia native ranked second on the team in steals a season ago and tallied nine double-digit scoring games. Sophomores Caleb Dorsey, Dallion Johnson and Andy Christos also return looking to make a jump in their second year in Happy Valley.

NEW-LOOK NITTANY LIONS

Penn State welcomes plenty of new faces for the 2021-22 season. Upon Shrewsberry's arrivial, he immediately got to work on reloading the roster for his first season at the helm. Five new Nittany Lions joined the team via the transfer portal in Jaheam Cornwall (Gardner-Webb), Greg Lee (Western Michigan), Jalen Pickett (Siena), Jevonnie Scott (South Plains College) and Jalanni White (Canisius). Three others joined as walk-ons, two of whom have played college basketball in previous years, in Dan Conlan (Dickinson), Irekefe Oweh (St. Thomas Aquinas) and Ishaan Jagiasi. The eight new faces will pair with seven returners to comprise Penn State's 15-man roster.

NEW BUT FAMILIAR STAFF

Shrewsberry was tasked with assembling his first staff immediately upon arrival in Happy Valley. While this group has never all worked together, there are some key connections to both each other and the University.

Associate Head Coach and Penn State alumnus Adam Fisher '06 is returning for his third stint in Happy Valley. Fisher was the Nittany Lions' head student manager from 2003-06 during his undergraduate days. He later returned for the 2011-12 season as video coordinator and 2012-13 season as director of player development. Fisher comes back to Happy Valley as associate head coach after eight years with the Miami Hurricanes.

Shrewsberry tapped into his existing relationships when hiring a number of his other staff members. Assistant Coach Aki Collins and Shrewsberry were on the same staff at Marshall from 2003-05. The two coached current Assistant to the Head Coach Tre Whitted at Marshall. Shrewsberry also coached current Director of Player Development Mike Green at Butler as Green earned All-America honors under Shrewsberry's tutelage. Shrewsberry also worked on the same staff as current Video Coordinator Grady Eifert for each of the last two seasons at Purdue as the former Boilermaker standout was serving as a graduate assistant in West Lafayette, Ind.

AGE AND EXPERIENCE

The average age of Penn State's 15-man roster on the offical Nov. 9 start date of the 2021-22 college basketball season (Penn State opens on Nov. 10) will be 21.61 years old. Penn State is believed to be the third-oldest Division I team in the country this season behind Drake (21.85) and Chattanooga (21.69). The Nittany Lions have no freshmen on their roster, and are bolstered by nine players who have played two or more years of college basketball.

THE EXCITEMENT IS REAL

Penn State men's basketball fans are set to return to the Bryce Jordan Center for the first time in 617 days when the 2021-22 season tips off on Nov. 10. The Nittany Lions last played in front of their home crowd on March 3, 2020 when 13,437 fans crowded the Bryce Jordan Center to see the Nittany Lions take on Michigan State.

The buzz in Happy Valley is palpable as Penn State sold nearly 2,800 student season tickets, the most in the history of Penn State Basketball student season ticket sales.

Transferred to Penn State after highly decorated and successful three seasons at Siena, which included honors as the MAAC Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year and recognition on several national player of the year watch lists.

BEFORE PENN STATE

Was a three-time first-team All-MAAC selection...Named 2019-20 MAAC Player of the Year and 2018-19 MAAC Rookie of the Year...Averaged 15.0 points per game in three seasons with 60 career double-digit scoring games...Compiled 1,139 career points with the Saints and reached the 1,000-point mark in just 65 games...Averaged 6.1 assists per game for second-highest individual career average in program history

AS A JUNIOR – 2020-21 (SIENA)

Awards: Named to 2020-21 Lute Olson Award (top Division I player) and Lou Henson Award (top Division I mid-major player) Preseason Watch Lists.

Season: Played and started 14 games...Was second on team with average 36.0 minutes per game and 12.9 points per game...Dished off team-best 67 assists and led team with 16 blocks.

Rankings: Considered top-100 Division I player (No. 61 by HoopChain and No. 99 by CBS Sports' Matt Norlander) entering season...Led MAAC in assists per game (4.8) for third-straight season...Paced league with 2.21 assist-to-turnover ratio...Averaged 1.14 blocked shots per game, the fifth-highest average for a guard in Division I.

AS A SOPHOMORE – 2019-20 (SIENA)

Awards: Named MAAC Player of the Year, only the second sophomore in league history to win award (Lionel Simmons – La Salle: 1987-88)...Selected unanimously to All-MAAC first team...Named to Lou Henson All-America Team...Earned NABC District 1 honors and was USBWA All-District II selection...Became first Siena player in 55 years to be named an All-ECAC first-team honoree (Jack Mulvey: 1965)...Was three-team MAAC Player of the Week recipient.

Season: Became only player in last quarter century to average at least 15 points (15.1), six assists (6.0), one block (1.1) and one steal (1.0) per game, according to Heat Check CBB... Scored in double figures 25 times, including six 20-point performances...Posted four double-doubles...Averaged 7.7 assists while achieving 3.97 assist-to-turnover ratio over final 15 games of season...Scored both the second-most points (959) and dished out second-most assists by any Siena player by end of their sophomore season in program history (Marc Brown: 1987-89 – 979 points, 421 assists).

JALEN PICKETT

Rankings: Ranked seventh nationally in assist-to-turnover ratio (3.30), 20th in assists, and 21st in average minutes (36.9)...Was fourth in MAAC in scoring, sixth in blocks, and seventh in 3-pointers (58).

AS A FRESHMAN – 2018-19

Awards: Named MAAC Rookie of the Year by unanimous selection...Earned a spot on MAAC All-Rookie Team...Earned first-team All-MAAC honors, only the second freshman in league history to do so...Named CBS Sports/USBWA National Freshman of the Week (2/19)...Garnered a league-record 11 MAAC Rookie of the Week honors, also tied for second most overall in NCAA Division I history (12 – Jared Sullinger: Ohio State – Big Ten, 2010-11)...Considered one of 30 Division I finalists nationally for 2019 Kyle Macy Award, which is presented annually to top freshman in college basketball...Become first freshman in program history to be selected to NABC District 1 first team...Selected to MAAC All-Tournament Team...Named ECAC Rookie of the Year and second team All-ECAC...Named 2018-19 Siena College Male Student-Athlete and Rookie of the Year.

Season: Set Siena freshman records for both scoring (521) and steals (66)...Achieved fourth-highest single-season assist total in school history with 221...Scored in double figures 26 times, highlighted by eight 20-point performances...Recorded five double-doubles...Erupted for 46 points, the second highest single-game total in program history, and 13 assists vs. Quinnipiac (2/17) to become just the second player nationally this century with 45-plus points and 10-plus assists in a game...Swiped seven steals vs. Colgate (11/24), the most by a Saint since Clarence Jackson also had seven (1/4/10).

Rankings: Ranked ninth nationally and third amongst Division I freshmen in assists per game (6.7)...Stood 22nd nationally and fourth amongst Division I freshmen in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.76)...Was 35th nationally and fourth amongst Division I freshmen in steals per game (2.0)...Led MAAC in both assists and assist-to-turnover ratio...Was second in league in steals, fourth in blocks (0.9), and seventh in scoring average (15.8).

HIGH SCHOOL

Matriculated to college following a postgraduate year at SPIRE Institute in Ohio...Averaged 14.0 points, 6.3 rebounds, 4.6 assists and 2.1 steals per game that year...Shot 38 percent from beyond the arc...Played senior season at Aquinas Institute...Averaged double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds to lead team to Class AA Federation Final...Led Li'l Irish to NYSPHSAA Championship in 2016...Named NYSPHSAA Class AA MVP in 2016...Earned 2016 second-team all-state honors...Starred locally on AAU circuit, playing four years with Albany City Rocks...Led EYBL with a 139.6 offensive efficiency in final season.

MICAH SHREWSBERRY

PETER AND ANN TOMBROS ENDOWED MEN'S BASKETBALL HEAD COACH

Penn State Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Sandy Barbour announced the hiring of Purdue Associate Head Coach Micah Shrewsberry as the 14th men's basketball head coach in Penn State history. Shrewsberry comes to Penn State with a wealth of experience as an assistant coach for a pair of nationally ranked programs and in the NBA. He also has two years of head coaching experience.

Shrewsberry spent the last two seasons with Big Ten foe Purdue University as the associate head coach. As the offensive coordinator, Shrewsberry helped lead the Boilermakers to a fourth-place finish with a 13-6 Big Ten record in 2020-21. Purdue finished with an 18-9 overall mark and earned an NCAA Tournament berth. Trevion Williams claimed first-team All-Big Ten honors, while Zach Edey and Jaden Ivey were All-Freshman Team selections.

Prior to his time at Purdue, Shrewsberry spent six seasons (2013-19) with the NBA's Boston Celtics as an assistant coach. During his tenure, the Celtics reached the playoffs in five consecutive seasons, including back-to-back appearances in the Eastern Conference Finals in 2017 and 2018. Under Shrewsberry, Boston ranked sixth in the NBA in 3-pointers made and seventh in 3-point field goal percentage in the 2018-19 season and was second in 3-point field goal percentage in 2017-18, behind the NBA champion Golden State Warriors.

Shrewsberry played a key role in the development of Jaylen Brown and Jayson Tatum, who were the No. 3 picks in the 2016 and 2017 NBA Drafts, respectively. Tatum was an NBA All-Rookie Team first-team selection, while Brown earned second-team All-Rookie honors. Shrewsberry was also an assistant coach in the 2017 NBA All-Star Game.

Shrewsberry's first stint as an assistant coach at Purdue spanned the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons where he helped the Boilers reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament. He played an integral role in helping Purdue's offense lead the country in fewest turnovers per game with 8.74 in 2011-12. Under Shrewsberry, Terone Johnson was one of the most improved players in the Big Ten in 2011-12, improving his field goal percentage by nearly 13 percent and upping his scoring average by more than five points per game from his freshman to sophomore year.

The Indianapolis native spent four seasons at Butler University under head coach Brad Stevens. He started his time with the Bulldogs as the coordinator of basketball operations before serving as an assistant coach for three seasons. With Shrewsberry on the bench, the Bulldogs compiled an 87-21 record, won two Horizon League regular-season championships and two Horizon League Tournament titles, and made three NCAA Tournament appearances.

During Shrewsberry's time at Butler, the Bulldogs reached the 2010 and 2011 National Championship games. He aided in the development of Gordon Hayward, who was the 2009 Horizon League Newcomer of the Year, 2010 Horizon League Player of the Year in 2010 and on the Final Four All-Tournament Team in 2010. Hayward was selected as the ninth overall pick in the 2010 NBA Draft by the Utah Jazz.

HEAD COACH MICAH SHREWSBERRY

Shrewsberry was the head coach at Indiana University-South Bend from 2005-07. He served as the Chicagoland Collegiate Athletic Conference (CCAC) Division I Men's Basketball Chair in 2006-07. In his second season at the helm, the Titans showed a nine-game improvement from his inaugural season.

He was also the director of basketball operations at Marshall University (2003-05) and an assistant coach at DePauw University (2001-03) and Wabash College (2000-01). At DePauw, Shrewsberry led the Tigers to a 42-12 record with a pair of conference championships. Shrewsberry started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis in 1999-2000.

As player, Shrewsberry was a three-year starting guard and team tri-captain at Hanover College. He led the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference in free throw shooting (.833) and assists (4.4) in 1998-99.

Shrewsberry earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Hanover College in 1999 and a master's degree in sports management from Indiana State in 2003. He and his wife, Molly, have four children, Braeden, Nicholas, Caitlin and Grace.

ADAM FISHER

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Penn State Men's Basketball Head Coach Micah Shrewsberry announced the hiring of Adam Fisher as the Nittany Lions' associate head coach in March 2021. Fisher, a 2006 Penn State alumnus, returns to Happy Valley after six seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Miami and eight years overall with the Hurricane program. His résumé includes previous experience at Villanova, Boston University and Penn State.

From Jamison, Pennsylvania, Fisher was integral to one of the most successful spans in Miami basketball history. The Hurricanes recorded four-straight 20-win seasons and four-straight postseason appearances from 2014-15 through 2017-18 with NBA Draft selections in three consecutive years and numerous All-Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) accolades during Fisher's tenure.

The four consecutive postseason berths included Miami's trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2015-16, a season that witnessed victories over five ranked teams and 13 conference wins to tie for second in the ACC. The 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons added to the Hurricanes' successful run with NCAA Tournament appearances, a 10-0 mark to start the 2017-18 season and then a top-three finish in the 2018 ACC standings.

Fisher was part of the Miami coaching staff, one of only two ACC programs (Duke) which produced NBA Draft picks in consecutive years in 2017, 2018 and 2019. Two Hurricanes, Lonnie Walker IV, a first-round selection, and Bruce Brown Jr., a second-round pick, heard their names called in 2018. Dewan Hernandez was a 2019 NBA draftee.

Those results followed the Hurricanes' efforts in bringing in top-15 recruiting classes in back-to-back seasons in 2016-17 and 2017-18. Walker was one of three ESPN Top 100 players to ink with Miami in 2017-18. Walker IV (ESPN No. 13), a McDonald's All-American and Jordan Brand Classic All-America guard, joined guard Chris Lykes (No. 48), forward Deng Gak (No. 94) and New Zealander Sam Waardenburg in the class, ranked top 10 by 247Sports, ESPN and Scout.

In 2016-17, the staff signed High School All-Americans Hernandez (McDonald's), Brown Jr. (Jordan Brand Classic), Australian standout Dejan Vasiljevic and Rodney Miller Jr. from national powerhouse Oak Hill Academy (Va.). Both Hernandez and Brown were consensus five-star, top-30 recruits.

During Fisher's time in Coral Gables, the Hurricanes earned 20 all-conference laurels, including honors for sophomore guard Isaiah Wong as a member of the 2020-21 All-ACC third team and 2021 ACC All-Tournament Team. Davon Reed, earned third-team All-ACC and All-Defensive Team accolades, and was recognized for excellence on and off the court as the winner of the 2017 Skip Prosser Award. The Prosser Award is presented annually to the top scholar-athlete in ACC men's basketball. Reed went on to be selected 32nd overall in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH ADAM FISHER

Other highlights included the Hurricanes' appearances in the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls with rankings in the top 10 and among the top 25, sell-out crowds at the Watsco Center, and the second triple-double in program history by Brown Jr. (11 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists).

Miami's 22 wins during the 2017-18 season included 11 conference victories and a third-place finish in ACC play. In 2016-17, Miami defeated three ranked teams, downing No. 9/6 North Carolina and No. 10/11 Duke in Coral Gables, as well as No. 18/19 Virginia on the road.

Miami recorded 27 overall wins in 2015-16, its second-highest total in school history. Fisher and the basketball staff celebrated 2016 ACC Coach of the Year Jim Larrañaga as the Hurricanes ended the 2015-16 season ranked No. 10 by the Associated Press and No. 8 in the USA Today Coaches Poll after a school-record 18-straight weeks in the top 25 and 14 weeks in the top 15. The win total included five over ranked teams: No. 3 Virginia, No. 11 Louisville, No. 16 Utah, No. 22/20 Butler and No. 24/20 Duke

The Canes posted, at the time, the second-most wins in program history with 25 in 2014-15. The win column included an impressive 16-point victory over fourth-ranked and eventual national champion Duke at Cameron Indoor Stadium as Miami was the only team to defeat the Blue Devils at home that year. Miami also defeated both No. 8/7 Florida and Syracuse on their home courts, two of Canes' 10 regular-season wins away from home. Postseason play added to the win total as Miami advanced to the NIT Championship game in Madison Square Garden.

Fisher joined the Hurricane program after gaining experience on the basketball staffs at Boston University and Penn State. As the director of basketball operations for Boston University for the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, he helped the Terriers to back-to-back 21-win seasons and postseason appearances. BU won the 2011 America East Conference Championship and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament berth nearly a decade. The previous year, the Terriers reached the semifinals of the 2010 CBI Tournament.

In 2011, Fisher returned to his alma mater as the Nittany Lions' video coordinator and was promoted to the director of player development position in 2012.

Fisher earned his master's degree in education leadership in 2009 while working as a graduate manager for Villanova under Jay Wright from 2007-09. During that time, the Wildcats reached the Sweet 16 in 2008 and won the East Regional in 2009 to advance to the Final Four with a then-school-record 30 wins.

Fisher graduated from Penn State with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2006. While there, he worked for three seasons as head student manager and one season as a graduate manager. Fisher assisted with player workouts, handled administrative duties and helped with team travel.

Fisher and his wife, Rebecca, have a one-year old daughter, Alivia.

Director of Operations

Penn State Men's Basketball Head Coach Micah Shrewsberry announced the hiring of David "Aki" Collins as an assistant coach on his staff in April 2021. Collins brings more than 20 years of coaching experience and a reputation as top recruiter to Penn State. After five seasons with the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder as an amateur scout, Collins returned to the college environment for 2020-21 as the director of basketball operations at New Mexico and moves back to the bench for the Nittany Lions.

The Shrewsberry-Collins connection dates back to 2003 when the two worked together at Marshall. Collins' tenure as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Thundering Herd overlapped for two years with Shrewsberry's role as Marshall's director of operations.

With the Oklahoma City Thunder organization from 2015-20, Collins was an amateur evaluation scout with responsibilities for identification and intelligence for his final three seasons. His first two seasons as an amateur scout included evaluation of collegiate and NBA players in the southeast region of the United States, as well as professional international prospects.

Three seasons at Memphis (2012-15) and four at Marquette (2008-12) as an assistant coach primed Collins for his opportunity to evaluate talent in the NBA.

The impact of Collins' coaching and recruiting expertise during his time at Memphis helped the Tigers to a 31-5 record and a perfect 16-0 mark as Conference USA's regular-season and tournament champions in 2012-13. The following year, the Tigers defeated five Top 25 teams en route to 24 total victories on the season. For the second-straight year, Memphis picked up a win in the NCAA Tournament.

Collins was a key part in the Tigers' recruiting process that reeled in a consensus top-five ranked class in 2013. ESPN.com listed Memphis with the second-best class in the nation that year with Rivals.com and Scout giving it a No. 3 ranking.

Building his reputation as an elite-level recruiter and on-court tactician, Collins was a top target in 2008 for then-Marquette coach Buzz Williams.

Collins' efforts at Marquette under Williams were instrumental to the program's success both on the court and in recruiting talent. The Golden Eagles recorded four-straight 20-win seasons and made four trips to the NCAA Tournament from 2008-12, including back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances in 2010-11 and 2011-12. The 27 victories in 2011-12 tied the program's second-highest win total and a 14-4 Big East record gave the Golden Eagles a second-place finish in the league, their highest finish in program history.

Marquette signed numerous ESPN top 100 prospects during Collins' stint in Milwaukee and the 2008-09 class earned top-20 recognition from ESPN (No. 14), Rivals (No. 17) and Scout.com (No. 18). Collins and the Golden Eagles' staff brought in another powerhouse class in 2009-10 with top-25 plaudits from Rivals (No. 13), ESPN (No. 18) and Scout.com (No. 25).

Collins started his full-time coaching career at Colorado in 1997, helping the Buffaloes to back-to-back National Invitation Tournament (NIT) bids in 1999 and 2000. He spent three seasons at Howard University (2000-03) as an assistant coach, tutoring a Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Player of the Year, and two MEAC Player of the Year candidates, before joining Marshall in the same role from 2003-06. His résumé also includes two years at Fairfield as an assistant coach.

An advocate and entrepreneur at heart, Collins established two businesses, a real estate company and basketball development program. Collins has also volunteered his time with various organizations in the communities in which he has lived, and while with Memphis, served as a clinician for the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) YES Clinics in Atlanta and Dallas. As an undergraduate student, he worked as an assistant site director for four years for the Citi-Wide Athletic Association and as an assistant director for Nike Spike Lee Basketball Camp.

Collins earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Clark Atlanta University in 1997 and worked with the basketball team as the head student manager after an injury sidelined his collegiate playing career. The Brooklyn, New York, product is currently pursuing a master's degree in athletic leadership from Rider University.

MIKE FARRELLY

ASSISTANT COACH

Penn State Men's Basketball Head Coach Micah Shrewsberry announced the addition of Mike Farrelly as an assistant coach in April 2021.

Farrelly joins Penn State after eight years on the bench at Hofstra, most recently serving as the acting head coach for the 2020-21 season. Promoted to associate head coach in the summer of 2019, Farrelly helped lead Hofstra to back-to-back Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) regular-season championships in 2018-19 and 2019-20. Hofstra won the 2019-20 CAA Tournament title and earned its first berth to the NCAA Tournament since 2001.

Under Farrelly's watch as acting head coach, the Pride defeated No. 23 Richmond on the road and won 13 games during an abbreviated 2020-21 season, a total that included eight league wins and a CAA Tournament semifinal appearance. In a six-year span (2014-15 through 2019-20), Hofstra averaged 20 wins per season, including a program-best 27 wins in 2018-19 after recording 26 victories in 2017-18.

Farrelly was instrumental to the success of the Pride program under former head coach Joe Mihalich as they rebuilt a program which had only seven wins in the season prior to their arrival in 2013. Hofstra's 24 wins in 2015-16 were its most in a decade and that season's CAA regular-season title was its first since joining the conference in 2001. The accomplishments over Farrelly's last six years as the right-hand man to Mihalich included four 20-win seasons and four postseason tournament appearances (1 NCAA, 2 NIT, 1 CBI). He also helped develop Pride student-athletes who won numerous accolades during his tenure, including three CAA Player of the Year recipients.

In 2020, Farrelly was named one of the top 50 mid-major assistants by Silver Waves media and to Jeff Goodman's list of top CAA assistants. He was also invited to participate in TopConnect 2020, the national networking program for top assistant coaches.

Prior to his time at Hofstra, Farrelly spent two seasons at Niagara under Mihalich. He guided the Purple Eagles to a 2013 postseason appearance in the NIT and regular-season Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference title before following Mihalich to Hofstra. Farrelly's diligent recruiting efforts brought two all-conference players to Niagara. In Farrelly's two seasons, the Purple Eagles improved their overall win total by double digits from nine to 19 and compiled 13 MAAC wins in 2012-13, tying the program's second-highest mark.

Farrelly spent the 2010-11 season as an assistant coach at Mount Saint Mary's where he worked with Mountaineers in all positions and oversaw academics, compliance and recruiting schedules. Before rejoining the collegiate coaching ranks, Farrelly served as the director of Hoop Group Elite, one of the nation's largest and most prestigious basketball camps from 2007-10. The organization provided instruction through camps and clinics, competition and exposure for more than 5,000 high school-level prospects. Farrelly started his coaching career at Wilkes University in 2006 as an assistant coach and director of intramurals.

Originally from New City, New York, Farrelly played for three years under Phil Martelli at St. Joseph's and graduated with a degree in finance in 2003. Farrelly worked in the financial services sector following his graduation from St. Joseph's, but remained involved in coaching.

Farrelly and his wife, Gina, have two sons, Michael (MJ) and Ryan.

Former Nittany Lion basketball player Nicholas Colella will begin his ninth season as a member of the basketball staff as the chief of staff for the program under Penn State Men's Basketball Head Coach Micah Shrewsberry.

Colella served as the director of basketball operations for 2020-21 and was previously the program's director of on-campus recruiting for five years, responsible for the coordination of official and unofficial prospective student-athlete visits. With restrictions to in-person visits in 2020, he developed innovative and dynamic solutions to share the program's success and vision. He also works closely with strategic communications and marketing on the Nittany Lions' social media presence.

In addition to his responsibilities related to recruiting future Nittany Lions, Colella also developed and maintained strong relationships with Penn State basketball letterwinners, alumni and donors. He also played an integral role with men's basketball summer camps and assists with the coordination of community and camp appearances.

From New Castle, Pennsylvania, Colella wrapped up a playing career worthy of a movie script in 2013. He spent two years of his collegiate career at the NCAA Div. III Penn State-Behrend campus (Erie, Pennsylvania) before matriculating to the main campus, spending two weeks as practice player with the Lady Lions basketball team and then joining the Penn State team through the open walk-on tryout process in 2010.

A member of Penn State's 2011 NCAA Tournament team, the left-hander worked his way into a significant role starting six-straight Big Ten games in 2011-12 and then earning a role as a team captain the following year. Colella was rewarded with a scholarship for his senior year.

In his senior campaign, he became a major part of the Nittany Lions' core lineup starting 14 games and playing in all 31. In the final nonconference game of the 2012-13 season, Colella connected on five three-pointers for 15 points. He scored nine points in Penn State's senior night victory over Michigan. The win over the fourth-ranked Wolverines was, at the time, the highest-ever in the Bryce Jordan Center.

Following his collegiate playing career, he served two seasons as a Penn State graduate manager before assuming his current role.

Colella holds two degrees from Penn State, a bachelor's in kinesiology (2013) and a master's in educational leadership (2015). He and his wife, Aly, were married in June 2021.

MIKE GREEN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Transitioning from a professional playing career to a role on the Penn State staff as director of player development is Philadelphia product Mike Green, who moves to Happy Valley to pursue the next step in his basketball journey.

Green showcased his talents in the NBA Summer League for several teams following graduation and joined the Cleveland Cavaliers for preseason camp. His love of the game brought him overseas where the award-winning guard lent his talents to several European teams over the last decade, most recently winning a French Disney Cup Championship. Green led AEK (Greece) to a FIBA Champions League title and Greek Cup in 2018, and was selected the game MVP after scoring 19 points in the final. Prior to joining AEK, he was a key component in regular-season championships for Varese (Italy), Khimki (Moscow, Russia) and Liège (Belgium).

As an undergraduate, Green made his mark on two programs. He was named to the Colonial Athletic Association All-Freshman Team in 2003-04 after setting Towson freshman records for minutes played (985) and games started (29). Green was the first freshman in Towson basketball history to start every game at point guard. He led the Tigers in assists, averaging more than 4.3 per game, and was the team's second-leading scorer in each of his two seasons there with a 10.2 scoring average as a freshman and an 11.9 mark as a sophomore.

In his first year at Butler, Green averaged 13.9 points, second on the team, and was tops on the 2006-07 team with 6.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists per game. He helped lead the Bulldogs to the NCAA Regional semifinals, a No. 10 ranking and 29 wins, both program bests at the time. With Green as the team's leader in scoring (14.6), rebounding (6.5) and assists (5.1), the Bulldogs won the 2008 Horizon League championship, posted 30 wins and were ranked as high as eighth nationally.

Green amassed numerous accolades as two-year starter for Butler, including 2007-08 Horizon League Player of the Year, Most Outstanding Player of the 2008 Horizon League Tournament, 2007-08 Horizon League All-Defensive Team, Associated Press All-America honorable mention, 2007-08 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award winner, 2007-08 Chip Hilton Award winner and 2006-07 Horizon League Newcomer of the Year. In just two years with the Bulldogs, he compiled 316 assists, which placed him sixth on the program's all-time list. He earned his degree in sociology before embarking on his professional playing career.

Green was a two-time All-Philadelphia Public League player, all-city selection and 1,000-point scorer at Franklin Learning Center. He led the Bobcats to a 22-4 mark and a 13-0 Philadelphia Public League record as a senior, and posted a 39-11 record in his final two seasons.

Whitted was an assistant coach with the NBA G League's Maine Red Claws, now Maine Celtics, during the 2019-20 season. He created and organized defensive drills, assisted with offensive analytics, scouting, and developed and trained key players. Whitted also served as a guest coach with the Boston Celtics during 2019 preseason training camp, where he participated in live drills and assisted coaches with player development segments of preseason training camp, summer league training and pre-draft workouts.

Whitted spent the last seven months as the head coach of the high school boys and high school girls travel teams with 3 Step Sports' Blue Wave Basketball Academy. He served as the lead skill development coach and lead camp and skills clinic instructor while working with the largest youth sport event and club operator in the nation.

Whitted was the president and CEO of Groundwork Player Development from 2015-2020. He handled all aspects of the company's operations, spanning from grading top talent, lead coaching duties and program construction, and player acquisition and retention. Whitted also spent three years as a basketball skills trainer with Blizzard Athletics prior to his time with Groundwork Player Development.

Whitted played four years of professional basketball before entering the coaching ranks. He won a 2008 PBL Championship with the Rochester Razor Sharks before spending two years in the NBA G League with the Springfield Armor. Whitted was a co-captain for Springfield during the 2010-2011 season.

Whitted put together an outstanding collegiate career at Marshall, where he was coached by both Shrewsberry and current Penn State assistant coach Aki Collins. A four-year starter and three-year captain for the Thundering Herd, he finished his collegiate career ranked in the top five in school history in minutes played and top 15 in school history in 3-pointers made. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education with a concentration in sports management and marketing.

Whitted originally hails from Wilmington, N.C., where he attended Laney High School, the same high school as basketball legend Michael Jordan. He was named an honorable mention McDonald's All-American and North Carolina All-Star alongside NBA veterans Chris Paul and PJ Tucker. Whitted is also the cousin of former Penn State women's basketball player Peyton Whitted, who played for the Lady Lions from 2013-17.

Eifert spent the last two seasons on staff at Purdue as a graduate assistant. His role included opponent scouting, film breakdown and helping with individual workouts and administrative duties.

As a student-athlete, Eifert arrived at Purdue as a freshman walk-on before earning a scholarship as a sophomore and working his way to starting all 36 games as a senior for a Purdue squad that advanced the Elite Eight in his senior season. The Fort Wayne, Ind. native shot over 50.0 percent from the field during his senior season, a team-best 43.8 percent from 3-point range and boasted an assist-to-turnover ratio of 3.11 while leading the country in offensive rating. Eifert helped the Boilermakers to a pair of Big Ten championships in 2017 and 2019.

Eifert was named Purdue's recipient of the 2019 Big Ten Outstanding Sportsmanship Award, the team's Courage Award and Mr. Hustle Award. He earned a bachelor's degree in selling and sales management from Purdue in 2019 and a master's degree in organization leadership and supervision in 2021.

JUSTIN POMAR

ATHLETIC TRAINER

Justin Pomar joined the Penn State men's basketball staff as the team's athletic trainer in August 2021.

Pomar works collaboratively with both the sports performance and sports medicine staffs to provide day-to-day and preventive care for the overall well-being and safety of Penn State student-athletes. He works directly with the team physicians in providing diagnostic, therapeutic and rehabilitation services.

Prior to coming to Happy Valley, Pomar spent the last four seasons at the University of Idaho where he served the men's basketball athletic trainer. While responsible for the daily evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of sport-related injuries for men's basketball student-athletes, he also assisted with the rehabilitation of injuries and did practice and game coverage for Vandal football, women's soccer, women's golf, and men's and women's tennis.

A 2014 graduate of Iowa State, Pomar went on to receive a master's in sports management from Northern Illinois where he was a graduate assistant in the athletic training office, working with the women's gymnastics, cross country and baseball teams.

Pomar currently holds a certification in corrective exercise specialist from the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

A veteran with more than 10 years in the field, and member of the Penn State athletics staff since 2009, Greg Miskinis enters his eighth season as an assistant director of performance enhancement. He oversees all facets of performance enhancement for the Nittany Lion men's basketball program.

Working closely with the team's athletic trainer, Miskinis has made a significant impact on the health and well-being of the men's basketball student-athletes. In his initial three seasons, men's basketball players were sidelined only 11 games total due to injury. The Nittany Lions maintained an exceptional health record over the last two seasons with only one player missing a single game due to injury.

Preparing the team for competing at the highest levels, Miskinis has developed both in-season and off-season programs that combine speed development, power production, explosive mobility, conditioning, proper warm-up and cool down techniques, flexibility, agility and regeneration. Miskinis incorporated programs with a high nutritional focus to help student-athletes build and maintain effective habits and achieve high levels of both physical and mental resiliency. He has also introduced wearable technology to track and improve preparation, performance and recovery.

During spring and early summer 2020, Miskinis designed workouts to adapt to the unique circumstances that prevailed following the cancellation of the postseason tournaments. With the Nittany Lions' return to campus in June 2020, he worked with Jonathan Salazer and the Penn State athletics administration to create healthy and safe training environments.

Miskinis previously worked with Penn State's national champion women's soccer team and the men's lacrosse program from 2013-16. He also assisted with the strength and conditioning efforts of the football program, including two appointments as the interim director of strength and conditioning for the athletics department during transitional periods.

Following his graduation from Penn State, the letterwinner and former tight end on the Nittany Lion football team (2004-08) assisted the Penn State football team as a graduate assistant coach from 2009-12. He earned his master of education in health education in 2011.

Miskinis holds certifications from Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), Functional Movement Screen Level I, Strength Coach Kettlebell Level I, and the American Heart Association CPR/AED.

The Lewistown, Pennsylvania, native is married to the former Megan Altig. The couple welcomed a daughter, Vera Kate, in May 2020, and has a son, Liam Gregory, born in December 2017.

JEFFREY WISINSKI

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Jeffrey Wisinski begins his second season as the primary care team physician for the Penn State men's basketball team. He joined the staff ahead of the 2020-21 season after spending the last year in State College at Penn State Health Milton S. Hershey Center as a primary care and sports medicine fellow.

In addition to his clinical appointment with Penn State Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine and Family and Community Medicine, Wisinski also holds the position of assistant professor.

One of the top sports medicine centers in the country, the Penn State sports medicine unit consists of four orthopaedic surgeons, four primary care physicians, two fellows and three physicians' assistants. Penn State Orthopaedics provides medical services and covers all 31 varsity sports at Penn State University as well as area high schools and the general public.

Wisinki graduated from Penn State with a degree in science and minor in psychology in 2011 after competing for four seasons a member of the Nittany Lion track & field team as a discus, hammer and 35-pound weight thrower. He continued his education at the Lake Erie College of Osteopathic Medicine, completing a post-baccalaureate certificate in 2012 and earning his medical degree in 2016.

From Erie, Pennsylvania, Wisinski served as the chief resident for the Forbes Family Medicine Residency within the Allegheny Health Network in Monroeville, Pennsylvania, following his first two years in residency.

Wisinski was named to the Big Ten Conference Cardiac Steering Committee and the Big Ten COVID-19 Clinical/Biomarker Subcommittee. He is also a member of the American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM), American Medical Society for Sports Medicine (AMSSM), American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP), and American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians (ACOFP).

In early 2020, Wisinski was invited to present his research at the 2020 ACSM Annual Meeting in San Francisco with a poster entitled, "Does Poor Recovery Predict Injury in the Division 1 Female Collegiate Lacrosse Athlete?" He shared his research study, "Somatic Dysfunction and Lower Extremity Injuries in the High School Soccer Athlete: A Prospective Cohort Study," at the 2019 AMSSM Annual Meeting, Houston, Texas.

The two recent research presentations are just a fraction of Wisinski's clinical and research interests. Osteopathic Manipulation Treatment (OMT), Musculoskeletal Ultrasound, concussion, and influenza vaccination behavior during the COVID-19 pandemic are listed as his topics of future research and discovery.

Wisinski met his wife, Erica, while they were both attending Penn State, and she is also a 2011 Penn State graduate. The Wisinskis and their two children, Isabella and Lucas, reside in State College.

JOSEPH IANIERO

MORGAN ACADEMIC CENTER

THIRD SEASON | BLOOMSBURG '11, '13

In his third year with Penn State basketball as the primary academic counselor for the program, Joseph Ianiero is responsible for all matters pertaining to the student-athletes' academic goals, progress and performance.

Ianiero also works with the Penn State baseball team and coordinates the student-athlete travel/missed class time program and process for Penn State's 31 varsity teams.

After earning his Master of Education degree in counseling and college student affairs in 2013, Ianiero joined Penn State as a co-curricular programs coordinator for Residence Life. He moved to the Morgan Center as an academic counselor in 2015 and was promoted to assistant director in September 2018.

Ianiero is a member of Penn State's Undergraduate Education Staff Advisory Committee, the Academic Integrity Committee for Student-Athletes and Athletics Mental Health Task Force and serves as subcommittee chair for educational outreach for student-athletes.

An All-Atlantic Region selection and two-time All-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference second-team pick as a second baseman at Bloomsburg, Ianiero was the Huskies' captain as a senior and voted team MVP following his junior and senior seasons.

Ianiero resides in State College with his wife, Megan, and daugher, Madison Rose.

WENDY MILLER

BASKETBALL OFFICE EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT

15TH SEASON | THE BOYD SCHOOL

Celebrating her 21st year overall at Penn State in 2021-22, Wendy Miller begins her 15th season as the basketball office executive assistant. Miller was named the 2016-17 recipient of the Coaches Award, voted on by the members of the staff to honor the individual who best exemplifies the Penn State tradition of positive team attitude.

As part of the basketball staff, Miller handles managing and distributing information within the office and assists in maintaining recruiting records, budget and scheduling efforts for the coaching staff.

Miller is a native of Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, and has two sons, Trey and Torin. She graduated from The Boyd School, a travel school in Pittsburgh.

COLLIN MUTHLER

EQUIPMENT

FOURTH SEASON | PENN STATE '15

The 2021-22 season will be the fourth season for Collin Muthler as the team's equipment manager. His efforts have been instrumental as the program has instituted additional measures to further elevate student-athlete health and safety procedures during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Muthler served in a variety of roles with the Nittany Lion men's and women's track and field programs, men's and women's lacrosse teams and the football team in the four years prior to moving to the Bryce Jordan Center in 2018.

Muthler's experiences include handling game day events operations and administrative duties related to Penn State's Multi-Sport Indoor Facility. The State College Spikes clubhouse manager in 2013, he was also a high school assistant baseball coach and worked with Operation Military Kids to provide a fun event for children whose family members are deployed overseas.

Muthler and his wife, Nadia, are parents of a daughter, Eleigha, born in August 2020.

REBECCA PLESCIA

MARKETING

FIRST SEASON | ASHLAND '14, AKRON '16

Rebecca Plescia joined the Penn State family in September 2021 after spending two years as the director of marketing at UTEP. As the program's new director of marketing, her primary responsibilities include the planning and execution of marketing and promotion plans and creating an exceptional game day experience in the Bryce Jordan Center.

Plescia continues her work in marketing and promotions at Penn State after serving as the director of marketing at UTEP, working with football, men's and women's basketball, and volleyball. She was part of UTEP's first marketing staff that won a NACMA Best of Award (bronze) for Single Game Sales Campaign (2020).

Prior to UTEP, Plescia had stints in SMU's marketing department (2017-19) as well as at Ohio State (2016-17).

Plescia is a 2014 graduate of Ashland University and a 2016 graduate of Akron where she received a masters in sports adminsitration and was a graduate assistant in the marketing department.

JOSH TOWNSEND

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

FIRST SEASON | KUTZTOWN '20

Josh Townsend begins his first season as a graduate assistant with Penn State basketball in 2021-22. Prior to joining the program, Townsend spent a year in the finance industry but realized he missed basketball and wanted to coach.

Townsend was a four-year standout player at Kutztown University of Pennsylvania from 2016-19, helping the Golden Bears to two PSAC East Championships and two NCAA Tournament bids. He finished his collegiate career as one of the program's best rebounders, with 553 career rebounds to rank fifth all-time. Townsend was also a team captain for the Golden Bears.

Townsend was a frequent volunteer with the Special Olympics of Eastern Pennsylvania while at Kutztown, organizing and running a five-on-five basketball tournament. He also helped with basketball camps held at Kutztown in the summers and at ones hosted by Olivet Boys and Girls Club of Reading, Pennsylvania.

Townsend graduated from Kutztown in December 2020. He attended high school at basketball power house Imhotep Charter School in Philadelphia.

CHELSEA VIELHAUER

COMMUNICATIONS

FIRST SEASON | PENN STATE '13

A 2018 addition to the Strategic Communications staff, Chelsea Vielhauer begins her first season with the men's basketball team.

Vielhauer spent the previous three seasons with the Penn State women's basketball team, handling communications and social media efforts for the Lady Lions.

Prior to her return to her alma mater in the summer of 2018, Vielhauer spent two years as the Associate Director of Athletic Communications at Colgate University where she worked with the men's basketball team among a number of other sports. Vielhauer's career began at Lehigh University as Assistant Director of Athletic Communications from 2013-2016 where she worked with women's basketball and a number of other sports.

Vielhauer graduated from Penn State in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in public relations. She worked in the Penn State Strategic Communications department as a student assistant for two years.

BO WAGGONER

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

SIXTH SEASON | PENN STATE '20

Austin "Bo" Waggoner continues his association with Penn State basketball for a sixth year as the former student manager begins his second season as a graduate manager in 2021-22.

In his four years in his role as a student manager, Waggoner facilitated the setup of practices at home and on location, prepared items and equipment for workouts, and tracked statistics during practices and games.

Waggoner is interested in pursuing a coaching career and his commitment beyond his responsibilities with Penn State basketball includes serving as a coach with the Penn State women's club basketball team for the past three years. During the summer of 2018, Waggoner also helped plan, organize and manage a summer basketball camp in Reading, Pennsylvania.

His volunteer activities included time with the Coaches vs. Cancer student organization as its treasurer, New Hope Ministries, and participation with the Penn State Smeal Corporate Citizen Conference.

From Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania, Waggoner earned his Penn State degree in finance with a minor in economics in May 2020.

COACHES VS. CANCER®-PENN STATE

MORE INFO: CVCPENNSTATE.ORG

In its 26th year, Coaches vs. Cancer®-Penn State consistently ranks among the top 10 CVC organizations in the nation and surpassed a $3 million net fundraising milestone in fall 2018.

Coaches vs. Cancer®-Penn State was established in 1995 under then-head coach and State College native, Bruce Parkhill, to raise funds to support the American Cancer Society as well as the Bob Perks Cancer Assistance Fund, a local nonprofit that provides direct support to those in our community who are fighting cancer and need assistance with everyday household bills. CVC-Penn State sponsors a year-round program of events and has been fortunate to be the beneficiary of third- party events including the State College Brew Expo and the Reverse Car Drawing.

The flagship event of the CVC-Penn State program has been the annual Coaches vs. Cancer® Golf Tournament. The 24th annual event welcomed nearly 100 sponsors, including the presenting sponsor, PSECU, to make the 2021 tournament at the Blue and White golf courses another great success. The event raised more than $150,000 net, the highest total in the event's 24-year history.

In previous years, for one game each season, Coaches vs. Cancer® Night allows us the opportunity to thank the CVC sponsors, and even more importantly, to let everyone know that it takes a team effort to help people with the battle against cancer. CVC works tirelessly throughout the year with one goal in mind – to make a difference in the fight against cancer.

In partnership with the Bestwick Foundation, the annual Reverse Car Drawing has drawn a loyal following of supporters who gathered at Medlar Field at Lubrano Park, home of the Penn State Baseball team and the State College Spikes, for an evening of hors d'oeuvres, entertainment, and a chance to win a luxury car. Proceeds were split with CVC and CVC funds provided room accommodations for patients and their caregivers from Centre County, who stayed more than 500 nights at the American Cancer Society's Hope Lodge® in Hershey, saving them over $75,000 in lodging costs.

Funds raised through the American Cancer Society's Coaches Vs. Cancer® support the ACS mission to help people "Stay Well, Get Well, Fund Cures, and Fight Back," both on a local and national level.

2020-21 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

Penn State sported the nation's toughest strength of schedule for the 2020-21 season as indicated by their No. 1 strength of schedule rating by KenPom.com. The Nittany Lions played eight games against teams ranked in the AP Top 25.

NITTANY LIONS RECOGNIZED FOR B1G POSTSEASON HONORS

Three Nittany Lions received All-Big Ten Conference honors for the 2020-21 season. Jamari Wheeler earned his second-straight All-Defensive Team award while Myreon Jones also collected an Honorable Mention from the conference media, his second All-B1G accolade for his career. John Harrar was also tabbed a league honorable mention by the media while also earning the Big Ten Sportsmanship award for the Nittany Lions.

Three Nittany Lions earned All-Big Ten recognition for the third time in four seasons and the fourth time since 2008-09.

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Penn State had five individuals receive academic recognition from the Big Ten for the 2020-21 school year. John Harrar, Myreon Jones, Patrick Kelly, Seth Lundy and Kyle McCloskey each garnered 2020-21 Winter Academic All-Big Ten team honors for earning a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0 or higher for the school term.

In addition to the Academic All-Big Ten team honor, Jones and McCloskey also received Big Ten Distinguished Scholar honors for their outstanding academic achievement. A 3.7 grade-point average or higher is the qualification for a Big Ten Distinguished scholar.

B1G ON THE OFFENSIVE GLASS

The Nittany Lions were the Big Ten's top offensive-rebounding team averaging 12.20 offensive boards per game in 2020-21. The effort on the offensive glass was led by senior forward John Harrar who led the conference and ranked 11th in the nation in both total offensive rebounds (94) and offensive rebounds per game (3.76).

TAKEAWAY KING

Senior guard Jamari Wheeler led the Big Ten in steals per game at 1.76 and second in total steals with 44 over the 2020-21 season. The Nittany Lions have had at least one stat champion, in either Big Ten or all games, in seven of the last nine seasons.

FOR 3!

The Nittany Lions ranked as the second-best 3-point shooting teams in the Big Ten in 2020-21, averaging 8.9 three-point field goals per game and setting a program high in PSU's Big Ten era. Penn State made at least nine triples in 14 games.

Junior guard Myreon Jones led Penn State with 60 threes made, good for sixth in the conference, with junior guard Myles Dread adding 45 triples.

RANKED VICTORIES

Penn State continued its recent success in the ACC/B1G Challenge with a 75-55 road win at No. 15 Virginia Tech on Dec. 8, 2020. The win was PSU's sixth victory in its last seven ACC/B1G Challenge games. The Nittany Lions also took down No. 14 Wisconsin, 81-71, Jan. 30, 2021 at the Bryce Jordan Center. The win snapped the Badgers' 13-game win streak over Penn State and marked the fifth-straight season the Nittany Lions defeated a top-25 team on their home court.

STINGY DEFENSE

Penn State held several Big Ten opponents to below their offensive scoring averages throughout the 2020-21 season. On six different occasions, they kept opponents 9.0 points or more below their season scoring averages entering the game.

The Nittany Lions were also excellent at forcing turnovers by opposing teams. They had six of the top team turnover totals in B1G games in 2020-21, with its high being 18 forced turnovers on the road at Nebraska Feb. 23, 2021.

BIG MAN HARRAR

Penn State senior forward John Harrar emerged as one of the Big Ten's most impactful big men for the season. Harrar hauled in the game-high rebound total for 14 games and tied his career high rebound total (14) four times in 2020-21, with one of those 14-board performances setting a new Penn State Big Ten Tournament record (March 10, 2021 vs. Nebraska).

Harrar eclipsed the 500-career rebound mark vs. Minnesota on March 3 after his sixth-career double-double. He also reached 500 career points March 11 against Wisconsin in the second round of the Big Ten Tournament. His five double-doubles led the Nittany Lions.

SECOND-HALF SURGE CLAIMS 86-65 SEASON-OPENING WIN OVER VMI

Jamari Wheeler paced the Nittany Lions to an 86-65 season-opening win in the Bryce Jordan Center with a career offensive night with 18 points and four 3-pointers. Wheeler also added six rebounds and his five steals pushed him into the No. 9 spot on PSU's career steals chart with 152.

Penn State poured in 11 3-pointers with 40 points coming the paint as the program posted its 250th win in the BJC since its opening in January 1996.

The win was Penn State's fourth-straight season opening victory and 15th of the last 16 years.

The Nittany Lions offense clicked on all cylinders in the second half. Penn State shot 51.4% from the field and made seven of its 11 threes while limiting the Keydets to just nine total field goals in the second half.

Wheeler scored 13 of his 18 in the second stanza, going 4-8 from the field and perfect at 2-2 from beyond the arc. Free throws by Izaiah Brockington tied the game at 45 and then gave Penn State a one-point advantage at 46-45 just 5:27 into the second half. Sessoms stole the ball and set up Wheeler for a trey, then four different Nittany Lions hit field goals en route to a 13-point lead at 63-48 at the midway point.

Sam Sessoms' effort off the bench sparked the Nittany Lions with five-straight points as part of a 14-1 run to claim a 28-27 lead with just under three to go in the half. Wheeler gave Penn State the halftime 37-35 lead with a deep triple at the buzzer going into the break.

Penn State added 13 more steals to Wheeler's five and tied the BJC singlegame record with 18.

DREAD, LUNDY LEAD PENN STATE TO 72-69 WIN OVER VCU

Myles Dread drained a 3-pointer at the buzzer to give the Nittany Lions a 72-69 victory and a 2-0 start to the season. The Rams tied the game at 69 with 20 seconds left before Dread's third career game-winning 3-pointer saw Penn State leave the court with the win.

With the clock winding down, Jamari Wheeler found Dread on the right wing. Dread rose up and drilled his first field goal of the contest as time expired.

The Nittany Lions and Rams battled back and forth until the final minute and scored identical 37-point totals in the second half. With 20 seconds remaining, VCU's Jamir Watkins drove to the lane and made his lone field goal of the game with a layup to tie the contest at 69.

Seth Lundy turned in a career performance with 32 points on 11-19 shooting. Lundy poured in five 3-pointers while grabbing four rebounds and swatting two shots. Twenty of Lundy's 32 points came in second stanza against the Rams.

Sam Sessoms connected on his second free throw attempt for a 69-67 score before Ward's tying basket. Sessoms scored 17 points, his Penn State best, on 6-11 shooting.

Forward Levi Stockard III led VCU in scoring with 13 points.

PENN STATE EDGED BY SETON HALL IN OVERTIME 98-92

Seton Hall's strong second-half surge was enough to tie the game at 84 and send the game into overtime as the Pirates edged the Nittany Lions in the extra five minutes of play, 98-82, at the Bryce Jordan Center.

Nittany Lion leading scorer Seth Lundy scored the first five points in the overtime period to give the PSU an 89-86 lead with 2:51 remaining. He finished with 23 on the night with a total of six Nittany Lions in double figures.

Seton Hall's Sandro Mamukelashvili led all scorers with 30 points, 17 of his total coming in the second half.

Seton Hall started the overtime 3-7 from the free throw line and went 6-8 down the stretch, including its final five points of the game. The Pirates scored 23 points off 35 attempts on the night while the Nittany Lions were 15-19 and 6-9 in the second half and overtime combined.

In total, the Nittany Lions knocked down 13 triples with eight coming in the first half. The Pirates, 1-12 from the behind the three-point line in the first 20 minutes, improved with their 5-9 mark in the second half.

A critical 3-pointer for Seton Hall from Mamukelashvili, with 1:58 left in regulation, spurred the Pirates' 8-0 run to tie the game at 84 and force overtime.

PENN STATE DOWNS 15TH-RANKED HOKIES IN ACC/B1G CHALLENGE

Penn State set the tone with an active defensive effort and a career performance offensively from Izaiah Brockington to down the No. 15 Virginia Tech Hokies, 75-55. The Nittany Lions ended Virginia Tech's 34-game non-conference home winning streak and dealt the Hokies their first loss of the season.

The Nittany Lions led the game for nearly 39 minutes, trailing only after the first basket of the game and the victory was milestone win number 1,500 for the program. The win was also Penn State's third-straight in ACC/B1G Challenge games, sixth in its last seven appearances, and second over a ranked Virginia Tech team in the last three Challenge outings.

Brockington's efficient performance produced a career-best 24 points. He started 7-8 from the field and finished 10-14 while tying his career-best total eight rebounds. Three other Nittany Lions had double-figures in scoring with Myreon Jones with 14, Myles Dread with 11 and Sam Sessoms with 10.

The stout Nittany Lion defense forced the Hokies to turn the ball over 14 times which led to 22 points for Penn State. Offensively, Penn State opened up the floor and drilled 12 treys, shooting a season-best 52.2 percent from behind the arc. Jones, Dread and Sessoms had nine triples combined.

Virginia Tech struck first with a triple just 30 seconds into the game, but Penn State hit back with a 17-0 run to take a lead it would never relinquish.

Jalen Cone led the Hokies in scoring with 11 points and Keve Aluma had a game-high 12 rebounds

PENN STATE FIGHTS TO END IN B1G OPENER AT MICHIGAN

The Big Ten opener went down to the wire in the Crisler Center as the Nittany Lions overcame a nine-point halftime deficit, but came up just short against undefeated Michigan in the final minute, 62-58.

The Nittany Lions trailed by two with 24 seconds left, and after a pair of missed free throws by Michigan, saw the Wolverines escape after a layup attempt rimmed out.

Penn State recovered from a tough stretch of shooting in the first half and used a furious 18-2 run over the final two minutes before the break until the 16:36 mark of second half to take its first lead of the game at 39-38.

Izaiah Brockington scored 11 of his team-best 14 points in the second half and Myreon Jones and Sam Sessoms added 10 points each for Penn State.

The Nittany Lions outscored the Wolverines 31-26 in the second half and the battle continued until the final buzzer as neither team held a lead larger than six in the final 16 minutes.

Michigan built a six-point lead with about five minutes remaining, but Penn State used an 8-0 run to go up by two with 2:53 left to play.

Penn State's bench contributed 20 points in the effort with Sessoms' 10, six from Dread and four points from Abdou Tsimbila.

The Wolverines' leading scorer, Hunter Dickinson, finished his night with 20 points.

Nittany Lion Trent Buttrick tied for the game high with seven rebounds, a career best. Jamari Wheeler had four assists and three steals for game-high totals in both categories.

PENN STATE BESTED BY NO. 18 ILLINOIS

The inside presence of No. 18 Illinois negated the strong shooting performance by Penn State for a 98-81 Illini win in the Bryce Jordan Center.

Izaiah Brockington and Myreon Jones each scored 21 points on the night, but it wasn't enough to get past 30 points from leading scorer Ayo Dosunmu and 23 from Illini teammate Kofi Cockburn's 23.

Illinois scored 58 points in the paint and converted 21 second-chance points with potent attack in the second half. Penn State matched Illinois through the 14:26 mark of the second half as Sam Sessoms tied the game at 54 points with a driving layup. The three different Illini scored to counter with an 8-0 run over the next two minutes for a 62-54 lead.

The Illini pulled out to and held onto a double-digit lead for the last five minutes of the game, in part due to their 19 made free throws on 24 trips to the line in the second half.

Penn State roared to an early 19-4 lead and knocked down 10 of its first 15 shots for a 23-12 lead as Jones scored 11 quick points in the first four-anda-half minutes of action. The Illini responded with a combination of points in the paint and 3-pointers over the next nine minutes to pull within two points of the Nittany Lions at 37-35.

A 3-pointer by Frazier gave the Illini their first lead at 38-37 with 3:52 in the first half, but the two teams would exchanged leads until knotting the score at 43-43 going into the locker room.

The opening 20 minutes saw Penn State shoot 61.3 percent from the field and Illinois at 56.7 percent. The Nittany Lions were hot to start the second half, going 5-8, but cooled to a 47.1 mark for the period. Both teams were above 50 percent for the game and made the same number of field goals with PSU at 53.8 percent (35-65) and Illinois at 55.6 (35-63).

COMEBACK BID FALLS SHORT IN OVERTIME AT INDIANA

Penn State overcame a 12-point deficit at Indiana in the waning minutes of regulation to force overtime, but the Nittany Lions eventually dropped a tough road contest, 87-85 at Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall.

The Nittany Lions had a pair of chances on the last possession to send the game to a second overtime, but were unable to convert. Indiana's Rob Phinisee made an extremely tough, contested jumper to give the Hoosiers the two-point lead that ended up standing as the game-winning basket. Trayce Jackson-Davis finished the night with a game-high 21 points.

Myreon Jones scored 14 of his team-best 20 points in the first half and combined with Jamari Wheeler's basket for Penn State's five overtime points. Sam Sessoms tied his Penn State best with 17 points and scored seven-straight points to give Penn State an 80-79 lead with 28 seconds left. Jackson-Davis drew a foul and went to the line, making the first free throw, but missing the second to leave the score tied at 80 at the end of regulation.

Jackson-Davis' field goal and foul shot put the Hoosiers up 85-83 with 1:03 left to play in the extra period, but Jones knotted the game at 85 with two made free throws with just 43 seconds left on the clock. For Jones, it was his second-straight 20-plus point game and eighth of his career.

After an Indiana timeout, Phinisee's shot gave the Hoosiers an 87-85 lead and the final tally after a Penn State 30-second timeout and missed attempt.

PURDUE HOLDS OFF LATE NITTANY LION RALLY, 80-72

Penn State's first game of 2021 came down to the final minutes, but couldn't pull off the comeback and fell at Purdue 80-72. Myreon Jones scored a game- and career-best 23 points and John Harrar had a career-best 14, but all five Boilermaker starters finished the afternoon in double figures.

The Nittany Lions battled for all 40 minutes, whittling the score to a single-digit deficit, 68-61, with 2:37 left to play. Jones was an offensive force late in the game, scoring 12 of his 14 of his second-half points in the final 2:37.

After a back-and-forth battle in the first half, the Boilermakers looked to put the game out of reach, shooting at 67 percent clip from the field during the first six minutes of the second stanza. Purdue used an 18-5 run to take a 51-37 lead, but a pair of triples by Trent Buttrick ended the hot start.

Harrar's gritty performance also ended with the second double-double of his career as he finished with 14 points and 14 rebounds, 10 on the offensive end. Izaiah Brockington collected a career-best in rebounds with nine to go along with 12 points. Jamari Wheeler had a game-high four steals.

The Boilermakers made 12 free throws over the final 2:18 to secure the win and had 33 trips to the line compared to Penn State's 13. The Nittany Lions had the edge on the boards 49-47, but Purdue's hot second-half shooting (54.2) compared to PSU's 27.7 allowed the Purdue to hold onto the lead.

Trevion Williams had a double-double for Purdue with 13 points and 11 rebounds while Sasha Stefanovic led the team with 15 points.

FIRST-HALF DEFICIT TOO MUCH FOR PENN STATE AT ILLINOIS

Penn State had double-digit scoring efforts from Myreon Jones and Seth Lundy, but the Nittany Lions could not overcome several scoring bursts from No. 22 Illinois in a 79-65 loss at the State Farm Center.

Jones led the Nittany Lions with 20 points on 6-13 shooting, extending his streak of 20-plus point scoring efforts to four-straight games. Lundy chipped in 13 points off the bench with two three-pointers and a 5-5 mark from the free throw line.

Illinois pieced together several scoring runs throughout the night and received a strong individual performance from Kofi Cockburn, who scored a game-high 21, to hold Penn State at bay. John Harrar had a team-best nine rebounds for the Nittany Lions while Abdou Tsimbila had a career-best seven boards to go along with four points and two steals.

Illinois built on its lead early in the second half and used a stretch of perfect 6-6 shooting from the field over 3:30 to extend the lead to 22 points. Over the next seven minutes, the Illini failed to score a basket while the Nittany Lions had five-straight field goals for a 68-53 score.

Foul trouble put the Nittany Lions at a disadvantage early, putting Illinois in the bonus midway through the first half. Kyle McCloskey played valuable minutes, with a career-best five points and a steal in 10 minutes of action. The 42-28 first-half lead proved to be enough for the Illini to secure the win.

The Nittany Lions outrebounded the Illini 40-35 after being down in that category 21-16 at halftime. Penn State forced Illinois into 15 turnovers, the Illini's highest total in Big Ten play, while the Nittany Lions had 10 steals, their highest total in a Big Ten game this year

PENN STATE EARNS 75-67 BIG TEN WIN OVER RUTGERS

Penn State absorbed a late surge by Rutgers to pick up its first Big Ten win. Led by 17 points each from Myreon Jones and Izaiah Brockington, the Nittany Lions were buoyed by the efforts of Seth Lundy, who recorded his first career double-double with 16 points and a careerbest 10 rebounds.

Penn State never trailed in the game, getting out to a quick start by shooting 53.3 percent from the field in the first half. Rutgers used a 51.3 percent shooting in the second half, including 6-6 mark over four minutes midway through the period, to make its run and cut the lead down to four points.

The Scarlet Knights countered Nittany Lion baskets with their own, but couldn't get closer than four points down the stretch. With about a minute to play and down by four, Rutgers was forced to foul and send the Nittany Lions to the line. Rutgers couldn't convert its final two field goal attempts and Jones canned two more free throws with four seconds left for the final.

Jones caught fire in the second half, scoring all 17 of his points in that period, including the first six points after the break to extend the Nittany Lions' lead to 40-25. Rutgers clawed back into the game with its 11-0 run with field goals from five different Scarlet Knights. Four-straight free throws by Penn State halt the run and put the Nittany Lions back up by double-digits, 58-47.

Rutgers' Ron Harper Jr. led all scorers with 18 points while Myles Johnson had seven rebounds to lead the Scarlet Knights.

Penn State had the advantage on the boards 40-27, had 10 steals and had 14 of its 15 made free throws in the second half.

PSU HOLDS OFF WILDCATS FOR SECOND-STRAIGHT B1G WIN

Penn State came out on top with an 81-78 victory over Northwestern in the Bryce Jordan Center. Led by Izaiah Brockington's game-high 21 points, and three other Nittany Lions in double figures, Penn State picked up its second-straight Big Ten Conference win.

Brockington finished his perfect night at the foul line with two free throws with seven seconds to play for an 81-78 Penn State lead. Northwestern's 3-point attempt from the right wing at the buzzer was long.

The Nittany Lions withstood a furious second-half shooting performance from Northwestern. The Wildcats shot 70 percent (14-20) from the field through the first 13:18 of the period, but Penn State's defense anchored down and held the Wildcats to a 1-7 mark in the final 4:02.

The Nittany Lions swung the momentum back in their favor. Down 73-69 with 4:24 to play, Penn State used a 10-0 run to snatch a 79-73 lead. Northwestern cut the lead to one with 12 seconds left in the game. Brockington calmly made his final two free throws to seal the win for the Nittany Lions.

Seth Lundy had 16 points, and Myreon Jones and Sam Sessoms had 15 and 12, respectively. John Harrar had a game-best 10 rebounds, his second-straight double-figure rebounding game and fourth of the last five.

The game saw 18 lead changes and nine ties.

Kopp led Northwestern in scoring with 19 points on 5-11 shooting while Pete Nance had the Wildcats' top rebound total with seven.

NO. 13 OHIO STATE SQUEAKS OUT 83-79 WIN OVER NITTANY LIONS

No. 13 Ohio State edged the Penn State 83-79 after a back-and-forth battle in the second half. Seth Lundy led PSU with a game-high 26 points as four Nittany Lions scored in double figures.

Lundy's trey with 2:07 remaining gave Penn State a 79-77 lead. OSU tied the game at 79 with two free throws and in the final minute, made a pair of free throws to take a two-point lead. A Nittany Lion triple was just off the mark and the Buckeyes were able to pull down the defensive rebound. On the following Ohio State possession, fantastic defense by Jamari Wheeler forced the Buckeyes to turn the ball over on a shot-clock violation.

With another chance to tie the game, a runner in the lane was off the mark for the Nittany Lions as the Buckeyes corralled the rebound. Another pair of Buckeye free throws produced the 83-79 final score.

John Harrar finished with the third double-double of his career with 15 points and 10 rebounds. Izaiah Brockington had 18 points and Myreon Jones 10.

The Nittany Lions defense forced the Buckeyes into a season-high 17 turnovers. Out of the halftime break, PSU went on a 10-3 run to take its first lead of the game at 49-46 following a Jones' three-pointer.

After ties at 49, 51 and 53, the score tipped in Penn State's favor, going up by six, 61-55 midway through the second period. The Nittany Lions made four of their next five field goals to go up by eight, 70-62. Ohio State put together an 10-2 run to take a 74-73 lead with 3:12 left in the game.

Ohio State's EJ Liddell finished with 22 points, 14 coming in the first half, and led the Buckyes with seven rebounds.

SECOND-HALF SURGE LIFTS LIONS OVER NO. 14 WISCONSIN

A second-half scoring outburst powered the Penn State to an 81-71 win over No. 14/13 Wisconsin as the 81-point scoring effort was the highest in the series against Wisconsin and highest point total allowed by the Badgers this season.

Penn State shot 53.6 percent from the field and made 18 free throws in the second period for its first win over Wisconsin since 2011. The Nittany Lions forced Wisconsin into a season-high 12 turnovers while scoring a seasonbest 50 points in the game's final 20 minutes.

Myreon Jones finished with a game-high 20 points. Izaiah Brockington added 18 points, nine rebounds and three assists. John Harrar finished with a career-high 17 points and had nine rebounds.

Penn State went 5-5 from the field over an early second-half stretch, including a 3-pointer by Jamari Wheeler for a 34-34 tie just one minute into the second period. The Badgers' Aleem Ford countered with a trey to give Wisconsin a 37-36 lead at the 17:58 mark, but the Nittany Lions responded a Jones basket and an emphatic one-handed dunk by Brockington off a Jones pass, and the Penn State never trailed again.

Foul shooting, fast-break points and points off turnovers all proved pivotal in the win. Over the final five minutes of the game, Penn State made 17 free throws to secure the 10-point win.

Neither team led by more than four during the first half with eight lead changes and four ties.

Nate Reuvers led the Badgers with 18 points and Tyler Wahl had a doubledouble with 13 points and 10 rebounds.

BADGERS USE HOT SECOND-HALF START IN WIN OVER PSU

Following an evenly matched first half, the Badgers used a 19-4 run after the break and relied on a hot second-half start to build a double-digit lead and win 72-56 in the second-straight game between the two teams.

Wisconsin went 4-7 from the field over the first four minutes of the second half for an 11-0 run and a 42-31 lead. Slowing the pace of the game down significantly, Wisconsin shot above the 50 percent mark before cooling down for a final 48.4 percent from the field. The Nittany Lions couldn't get into an offensive groove and didn't land their first 3-pointer of the half until 10:48.

After a layup by Izaiah Brockington, Myreon Jones and John Harrar combined for the next 14 points. Jones finished the night with a team-best 14 while Harrar had 10, grabbed five rebounds, had a pair of assists and two steals. Harrar was a perfect 3-3 from the field and 4-4 from the foul line.

Penn State forced the Badgers into a season-high total 15 turnovers and converted them into 16 points, but gave 10 points back off 13 turnovers on the night.

Wisconsin's Jonathan Davis led all scorers with 17 points. Micah Potter had a game-high eight rebounds.

The Badgers and Nittany Lions ended the first half with nearly an identical halftime score as their Saturday matchup. The Nittany Lions clawed back into the contest by holding Wisconsin without a field goal for the last 7:58 of the first period until the Wisconsin triple before the buzzer gave the Badgers a 33-31 lead at the break.

NITTANY LIONS WIN B1G DEFENSIVE BATTLE AGAINST MARYLAND

Penn State remained composed and held off a late Maryland rally for a 55-50 win. Jamari Wheeler made two free throws with 23 seconds left for the final margin after the Nittany Lions kept Maryland without a field goal for the final 7:32.

Wheeler tied his Big Ten career best with three 3-pointers and he hit a corner triple just before the shot clock expired at 11:33 of the second half to break a tie at 36. His triple sparked a Nittany Lion 7-0 run for their largest lead of the night, to that point, at 43-36.

Maryland cut the Nittany Lions' lead to one at 45-44 with 7:32 to play after an Eric Ayala layup, the Terps' last basket of the night. Maryland's final six points came from the free throw line.

Penn State free throw shooting proved to be the deciding factor, as the Nittany Lions went 16-18 from the charity stripe, with all attempts in the second half. PSU dominated on the boards in the second half as well, with a 25-11 advantage. John Harrar, with a game-best 12 rebounds, pulled down nine in the final 20 minutes and second seven of his nine points in the second half as well.

Izaiah Brockington led Penn State in scoring with 13 points and Wheeler accompanied him in double figures with 11. Maryland's Ayala led all scorers with 23 points.

The Nittany Lions and Terrapins defensive struggle was evident from the opening tip and the half ended with tie at 23. Neither team shot well from the get-go with the Terps' first basket coming 6:12 into the game and Penn State starting 3-10 from the field.

Maryland was hampered by a slew of early turnovers, finishing the half with 11. Penn State scored 10 points off the Maryland miscues.

NITTANY LIONS' SECOND-HALF COMEBACK FALLS SHORT

Penn State fought back in the second half, but three 3-point attempts missed the mark and Michigan State escaped with a 60-58 win.

Michigan State took back lead and went ahead by two, 60-58, after a second-chance layup and four free throws with 1:18 left in the game. A PSU 3-pointer with 49 seconds left missed its mark and after a MSU timeout, the tenacious Nittany Lion defense forced a turnover and Penn State brought the ball into the frontcourt. Following a Penn State timeout, a second 3-pointer bounced off the inside iron of the rim.

Forced to foul, Penn State sent the Spartans to the free throw line with a missed front end of a 1-and-1 to give Penn State one final chance. The last-second 3-point attempt was long and the Nittany Lions were out of time.

John Harrar led Penn State in three stat categories, finishing with his fourth career double-double (17 points, 14 rebounds) to tie career bests, and getting a career-high four assists.

Trailing by as many as 12 points in the second half, Penn State would not go quietly. Beginning at 16:17 mark in the second half, the Nittany Lions used a 13-3 run to tie the game at 41 with 11:53 to play before Michigan State extended its lead back to eight at 50-42 with 9:16 on the clock.

Myreon Jones scored 11 of Penn State's next 17 points. Hls layup at the 6:16 mark gave the Nittany Lions a 52-51 lead, their first since the 16:21 mark of the first half. The two teams tied at 52 and again at 54 before PSU took back the lead, 58-54, with 3:16 remaining.

The Spartans scored on their next possession to cut the lead to two and made four free throws for a 60-58 lead and final score.

Jamari Wheeler collected his 300th career assist, 16th on Penn State's career list.

DEFENSIVE EFFORTS NOT ENOUGH AS NEBRASKA WINS LATE

Penn State battled back from a second-half, double-digit deficit to take a one-point lead, but a steal and layup by Nebraska with 12 seconds remaining produced a 62-61 win for the Huskers. Two shots by the Nittany Lions in the final 64 seconds didn't find the bottom of the net and Husker Teddy Allen converted a fastbreak layup off a turnover for the game-winner.

Nebraska opened the second half on a 10-3 run and shot over 67 percent for the first 12, minutes, building a 60-49 lead. The Nittany Lion defense willed Penn State back into the game as Jamari Wheeler picked up a steal and then finished the layup to begin a 12-0 run.

The game's leading scorer with 18 points, Myreon Jones scored the final six points during the run, which included a four-point play after his 3-pointer tied the game at 60. His made free throw gave the Nittany Lions their first lead of the second half at with 1:58 to play.

During this stretch the Nittany Lion defense held Nebraska scoreless for more than eight minutes, going 0-9 from the field. Allen led Nebraska with 14 points, scoring the Huskers' last four points in the game.

Defensive stops by Penn State were critical and 10 Nebraska turnovers in the second half contributed to the Nittany Lion resurgence.

Myles Dread tied a season high with 14 points and tied a season-best with four treys. John Harrar finished with a game-best 11 rebounds, his 11th career game with 10 or more rebounds.

Penn State outrebounded Nebraska 39-35 and had fewer turnovers, 16-12, but the Huskers' had 21 points off the bench to the Nittany Lions' 10, including 13 by Kobe Webster

BUCKEYES' SECOND-HALF SCORING RUN BESTS NITTANY LIONS

A scoring run for fourth-ranked Ohio State midway through the second period was just enough to lift it past a tenacious Penn State squad, 92-82. The Nittany Lions gave the Buckeyes all they could handle, but Ohio State used a 15-0 run in the second half to pull ahead and take the win.

Trailing 47-43, four different Nittany Lions scored coming out of the break to spark an 18-7 run to take a 61-54 lead with 14:04 to play in the game. The Buckeyes responded with a 15-0 run without leading scorer E.J. Liddell who was on the bench with foul trouble in the second half.

The Buckeyes tied the game at 61 with 12:32 to go and then forged ahead to take a 69-61 lead after Harrar left the game after being called for his fourth foul. Five free throws over the next two minutes put the Penn State back in the scoring column at 72-66 and then added two more by Jones for a 74-68 score.

A charge taken by Myles Dread and two baskets by Izaiah Brockington brought PSU within four, 76-72. Back-to-back 3-pointers by Myreon Jones and Dread kept the Nittany Lions within two possessions, but a Duane Washington Jr. layup and free throw pushed the Buckeye lead to nine, 88-79.

Fouls by the Nittany Lions put Ohio State back on the line and the Nittany Lions tried to take advantage of quick offensive possessions after Buckeye misses in the final 45 seconds.

Liddell finished with a game-high 23 points and Jones finished with a teamhigh 18 points for Penn State.

A red-hot shooting performance from both teams lit up the scoreboard in the first half with the Buckeyes at 65.4 percent from the field with six treys and Penn State at 53.6 percent from the field with seven 3-pointers. The seesaw scoring continued to the final first half horn. The Buckeyes hit a 3-pointer at the buzzer to take a 47-43 lead into the locker rooms.

STRONG SECOND HALF LIFTS NO. 11 IOWA OVER NITTANY LIONS

No. 11 Iowa overcame its second-half scoring drought to lift the Hawkeyes to a 74-68 win over Penn State. Penn State's swarming defense held Iowa 13 points below its scoring average and forced 16 turnovers, a season high for the Hawkeyes.

Scoring droughts for both teams marked the second half with Iowa going without a field goal for two four-minute spans and Penn State unable to make a shot for seven minutes. With the game tied at 54 at 12:10, neither team could make a basket until Hawkeye center Luka Garza ended the Iowa stretch with a layup at the 8:18 mark for a 56-54 score.

After the under-eight-minute timeout, the Hawkeyes put together a 14-4 run to take a 70-61 lead with 4:05 left in the game. Despite struggling with its shooting over a stretch of seven minutes, Penn State scored eight points, all from the free throw line, and made defensive plays that kept it in the game. A trey by Myreon Jones at the 4:58 mark kept Penn State in the hunt, down by only six, 67-61. The last two free throws, by Jones, pulled the Nittany Lions within five points, 70-65. A Seth Lundy triple found the bottom of the net as Iowa finished the game with a couple of free throws and a layup for the 74-68 final.

Jones and Brockington led the Nittany Lions with 11 points. Brockington had the high rebound total with seven while Harrar had six. Garza led all scorers with 23 points and he and Wieskamp had a game-high tying 11 rebounds. Garza became Iowa's all-time leading scorer in the second half of Sunday's matchup.

JONES' CAREER HIGH LEADS NITTANY LIONS TO B1G ROAD WIN

Penn State relied on a career night from Myreon Jones for an 86-83 Big Ten road win at Nebraska. Jones finished with 29 points on 8-18 shooting with six 3-pointers.

Penn State withstood the top scoring performance in the Big Ten Conference this year as Husker Teddy Allen scored 41 points, with 28 in the first half.

Jamari Wheeler hit two clutch free throws with 12 seconds remaining to seal the victory after Jones made five from the line in the previous 41 seconds. After not attempting a free throw in the first half, the Nittany Lions made 15 of their 18 free throws in the final 12 minutes of play.

The Nittany Lions scored 25 points off 18 Huskers turnovers and outrebounded Nebraska 42-29, allowing only two rebounds on the offensive glass.

Penn State led by seven with 53 seconds left, but free throws and a couple of baskets by the Huskers in the final 21 seconds trimmed the PSU lead to one, 84-83, before Wheeler's final points from the line. Nebraska had a long 3-point attempt to tie the game in the final seconds, but it was off the mark.

The Nittany Lions trailed by one, 48-47, with 14:57 to play, but a basket by Myles Dread started an 11-0 run that saw three-straight 3-pointers fall from Jones, Wheeler and Dread. Allen then scored eight of the Huskers' next 12 points to pull within three, 62-59.

Five Nittany Lions scored in double figures with Penn State's 14 3-pointers, its season-high to date. Dread finished with a season-best 16 points, Wheeler scored 13 points, Izaiah Brockington added 11 and John Harrar finished with his fifth career double-double (10 pts, 14 reb), tying his career rebounds high and posting the game-high total for the 12th time in 2020-21.

STRONG SHOOTING LEADS PURDUE PAST PENN STATE

Penn State played a close second half, but Purdue's hot shooting in the first period provided all it needed for the 73-52 win in the Bryce Jordan Center. Myreon Jones scored eight of his team-best 11 points in the second period while three other Nittany Lions had nine points each on the night.

Purdue's Sasha Stefanovic had a game-high 16 points as four Boilermaker starters finished the night in double figures. Aaron Wheeler picked up a game-high seven rebounds as Purdue won the battle of the boards 41-28.

The Boilermakers offensive efficiency in the paint provided 40 points and accounted for 55 percent of their scoring effort in the contest. Purdue started the game 10-13 for 76.9 percent from the field and cooled to 58.1 percent for the first half. The Boilers finished the game at 51.9 percent.

Trailing 41-26 at the half, the Nittany Lions made their first five shots, three by John Harrar, to open the second period to cut into the Boilermakers lead. After their first five makes, Penn State went 0-8 from the field before Harrar made a layup and converted the free throw. Purdue used drought to build its lead to 22 points, 36-58, before Harrar's field goal.

Jones connected on the next four field goals for Penn State while Purdue missed shots and committed turnovers during a six-minute stretch, but the double-digit lead was too much to overcome.

Wheeler had a team-best six rebounds and added six assists and four steals. He moved into 14th place on Penn State's all-time assists list with 319 assists.

NITTANY LIONS CLAIM WIN OVER MINNESOTA ON SENIOR NIGHT

Penn State started its five senior Nittany Lions in their final game in the Bryce Jordan Center as it claimed an 84-65 victory over Minnesota on senior night. Seniors Trent Buttrick, John Harrar and Jamari Wheeler combined for 41.6 percent of the Nittany Lions' scoring with 35 points against the Golden Gophers. Myreon Jones led Penn State with 17 points.

The five senior Nittany Lions started the game and went back into the game to play toward the end of the game. In their four years, the seniors amassed 33 Big Ten wins, tying the record set by the seniors in the class of 2020.

Buttrick, Harrar and Wheeler were three of the five Nittany Lions to finish in double figures in the victory. Buttrick tied his career-high with 13 points, knocking down three triples and Harrar turned in the sixth double-double of his career (12 points, 11 rebounds) to pace the front court and collect his 500th career rebound.

Jones' 17 points included a key 3-pointer to stem any chance of a Gophers' rally late in the game.

Penn State was extremely efficient in all aspects of the win, outrebounding Minnesota at a 48-33 clip and snagging 17 offensive rebounds. The Nittany Lions also dished out 19 assists, tying their season best in Big Ten games this season, against only seven turnovers.

Marcus Carr of Minnesota finished as the game's leading scorer with 22 points. Isaiah Ihnen had a double-double for the Golden Gophers with 12 points and 11 rebounds.

The Nittany Lions ended the first half on a furious 16-2 run and had connected on their final nine shots of the stanza. Penn State scored 46 points, its highest firsthalf output of the season, for a 46-28 advantage at the half.

LUNDY'S 31 POINTS PROPELS NITTANY LIONS TO COMEBACK WIN

Seth Lundy's 31 points led Penn State to a 66-61 victory over Maryland. The Nittany Lions scored 43 points in the second half to overcome an early 16-point deficit and sweep the season series with the Terps. It was the only the second win in 10 games at College Park, the first coming in December 1962.

Over the final 2:40, Penn State outscored the Terps 15-4 and Maryland's lone basket came on an uncontested dunk with one second remaining in the game.

Penn State's resiliency was on full display as the Nittany Lions overcame a 14-point deficit with less than 10 minutes remaining in the game. The Nittany Lions used an 11-0 run, which included six free throws, four from John Harrar and two from Lundy, to trim the lead to three, 50-47.

The Terps pushed their lead back to six with 2:51 left and Lundy's fourth trey of the game cut the lead to three, 57-54, and sparked the Nittany Lions' 15-4 run to close the game. After two of Harrar's free throws to pull Penn State within one, 57-56, Lundy hit a jumper in the paint for the Nittany Lions' first lead of the game at 58-57 with just 1:23 to go. His fifth triple, with just 32 seconds left, put Penn State up by four, 61-57.

Myreon Jones added 17 points, making all seven of his free throws in the second stanza, four in the final 22 seconds.

Big plays on defense, 13 points off turnovers and a 22-12 second-half rebounding advantage helped Penn State rally. The Nittany Lions attacked the offensive glass (10-1) and had 12 second-chance points to just two for the Terps.

Aaron Wiggins turned in a double-double (15 points, 10 rebounds) for Maryland.

NITTANY LIONS ADVANCE AFTER COMEBACK WIN OVER HUSKERS

Penn State used a fierce second-half comeback to win its Big Ten Tournament opener over Nebraska 72-66. Led by Jamari Wheeler's career-high 19 points, the Nittany Lions outscored Nebraska 49-29 in the second half to combat a 15-point first-half deficit.

Trailing 37-23 at the break, Penn State opened the second half with baskets by four different Nittany Lions to fuel a 10-0 start. PSU extended the run to 15-2 to cut the Husker lead to just one, 39-38. Penn State tied the game at 47 and again at 50 before taking a 51-50 lead at the 9:27 mark. After a brief Nebraska lead at 54-53, four-straight free throws put them up 57-56 with one final tie at 59 all.

The Nittany Lions' aggressive offensive approach put them into the bonus at the 13:18 mark of the second half and they went 20-24 from the foul line. Penn State sprinkled in a couple of baskets to stay just ahead of Nebraska in the final minutes.

Izaiah Brockington and Myreon Jones combined for 28 points, all coming in the second half. Jones and Wheeler had six of Penn State's seven 3-pointers.

The Penn State defense forced the Huskers to shoot from the outside in the second half and limited the Huskers to 3-16 shooting from beyond the arc. Penn State's energized defensive effort in the half limited second chance opportunities for the Huskers as the Nittany Lions outrebounded Nebraska at a 43-27 clip.

Penn State saw four score in double figures as Sam Sessoms added 11 points off the bench. John Harrar again led the effort on the glass, with the game high and tied his career high with 14 boards.

Trey McGowens led the Huskers in scoring with 13 points on 4-8 shooting. He went to the bench for a chunk of the second half and was one of four Nebraska players to finish the game with four fouls.

NITTANY LIONS FURIOUS COMEBACK FALLS JUST SHORT IN BIG TEN TOURNAMENT SECOND ROUND

Penn State was just seconds away from erasing an 18-point, second-half deficit in second-round Big Ten Tournament action. Over the last 7:48, the Nittany Lions outscored Wisconsin 24-7, and kept the Badgers scoreless in the final 2:36, but ultimately fell 75-74.

Penn State had a chance to retake the lead on the final possession of the game after forcing a turnover on the ensuing Wisconsin possession. On the Nittany Lions' drive to the basket, a pass was deflected by the Badger defense. Wisconsin scrambled to the ball and gained possession on a timeout with under a second to play, then successfully inbounded the ball and ran out the remaining time on the clock.

The run was fueled by Sam Sessoms who finished with a game-high and his Penn State-best 18 points as he scored 13 of the teams' 24 points in the stretch. Penn State made nine of its final 12 shots from the field and scored the final eight points of the game and combined an efficient offense with stingy defense to turn the momentum. Penn State outscored Wisconsin 43-34 in the second half after falling behind by 10 at halftime, 41-31.

The Nittany Lions finished with three players in double figures with Sessoms' 18 points, Myreon Jones had 11 and Jamari Wheeler scored his 10 in the first half. John Harrar collected a game-high 10 rebounds and surpassed the 500-career-point mark with his six points, all in the second half.

Aleem Ford went 6-7 from the field with five 3-point baskets for a Badger-best 17 points.

HEAD COACH
BURKE HERMANN

Years: 1916, 1916-17 & 1919-32 (15)
Record: 148-73 (.669)

Burke M. "Dutch" Hermann, Penn State's first basketball coach, retired in 1956, after a nearly 50-year affiliation with the University. A 1912 Penn State graduate, Hermann guided the Nittany Lions from 1916 until 1932, with the exception of two years of service as a lieutenant during World War I. The team did not have a coach in 1918, however; Hugo Bezdek served as coach in 1919. Hermann also served as freshman football coach during those years.

Hermann, who hailed from Middleburg, Pa., lettered four years in basketball, served as captain in 1910 and lettered as a football player in 1911. He compiled a record of 148-73 during 15 seasons as head basketball coach. Hermann's teams were especially dominating over a six-year period from the start of the 1919-20 season through the '24-25 season. The Lions were 73-13 during that stretch and, in 1921, outscored their opponents by a two-to-one margin.

As a professor of history, Hermann served on Penn State's Athletic Advisory Board for many years. He was awarded the Lion's Paw Medal by that organization's Alumni Association in 1968. Hermann died in 1977.

HEAD COACH
HUGO BEZDEK

Year: 1919 (1)

Hugo Bezdek, a native of Prague, Czechoslovakia, earned numerous accolades as Penn State's football coach from 1918-29. He also served as athletic director from 1918-36, and directed the basketball team for one season (1919) while then-head coach Burke Hermann served during WWI.

Bezdek's 1919 Penn State team went 11-2 and finished the year with eight straight wins.

As athletic director, Bezdek initiated fund raising in 1918 to build Rec Hall and 10 years later the building was constructed for $572,260.

Bezdek gained All-America status at Chicago, where he was a fullback in football and a second baseman on the baseball team. His collegiate coaching experience included head football coaching jobs at Oregon (1906, 13-17), where his team defeated Pennsylvania, 14-0, in the 1917 Rose Bowl, and Arkansas (1908-12). He also managed the Pittsburgh Pirates major league baseball club (1917-19).

Bezdek, who died in 1952, posted a 65-30-11 record during 12 seasons as head football coach at Penn State. He was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954 and the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1960.

EARL LESLIE

Years: 1933-36 (4)
Record: 29-28 (.509)

A 1922 graduate of the University of Oregon, Earl "Spike" Leslie coached the Penn State basketball team for four seasons from 1933-36. A three-year football letterman at Oregon (1919-21), he was named to the Pacific Coast Conference first team as a tackle in 1920. Leslie earned his master's degree from Columbia.

Despite reduced schedules in 1933 and 1934, Leslie's first two teams posted winning records. His 1934-35 outfit raced out to an 8-3 start, before dropping its final six games. In 1935-36, Penn State joined the "fast" Eastern Intercollegiate Conference and went 0-10, 6-11 overall.

Highlights during Leslie's tenure included four straight wins over Army and a rare road win at Pennsylvania. He achieved a composite mark of 29-28.

Leslie returned to Oregon as a teacher and coach at Coquille High School, southwest of Eugene. He remained in that capacity until he died on Oct. 12, 1957. The Coquille football stadium is named in his honor.

HEAD COACH
JOHN LAWTHER

Years: 1937-49 (13)
Record: 150-93 (.617)
NCAA tournament: 1-1

Raised on a farm in Carroll County, Ohio, John Lawther earned national recognition as one of the leading proponents of zone defenses during 23 seasons as a coach at Westminster College and Penn State.

A 1919 Westminster graduate, Dr. Lawther retired from the Penn State faculty in 1965 following a long and distinguished career in secondary and higher education. As basketball coach from 1937 until 1949, he compiled a 150-93 record. Lawther's first team posted a 6-4 Eastern Conference mark after a 0-10 league slate the previous year. His 1942 team went 18-3 and advanced to the NCAA East Regional, defeating Big Ten champ Illinois.

Lawther had a great running feud with animated Pittsburgh coach Doc Carlson, who despised the zone which Lawther favored. When the two teams met Jan. 15, 1944, in the Steel City, Pittsburgh froze the ball and the resulting 15-12 Penn State win grabbed national headlines. Great anticipation surrounded the rematch as Carlson attacked the Lions' zone and lost, 35-29.

In 10 seasons at Westminster, Lawther's teams compiled an impressive 166-35 mark. His most memorable moment coaching the Titans came on Dec. 29, 1934, when he guided them to a 37-33 win over undefeated St. John's in the first college basketball doubleheader at Madison Square Garden.

PSU's wartime coach, Lawther was elected to the NAIA Basketball Hall of Fame in 1962 and is a member of the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame. Lawther's winning percentage (317-127, 71.4 percent) still ranks among the top 50 all-time in

FORMER HEAD COACH BIOS

HEAD COACH
ELMER GROSS

Years: 1950-54 (5)
Record: 80-40 (.667)
NCAA Tournament: 2 (4-3)
1954 FINAL FOUR

Munhall, Pa., native Elmer Gross served as John Lawther's assistant for four years and assumed the head coaching position from Lawther following the 1948-49 season. Captain of Penn State's 1942 NCAA team, Gross directed the Nittany Lions to an 80-40 record and two NCAA Tournament berths. He used Lawther's sliding-zone defense and added a fast-break offense which saw the Nittany Lions top 1,000 points for the first time in 1950.

His 1954 squad, paced by All-America center Jesse Arnelle, placed third in the NCAA Tournament, finishing No. 9 in the final AP poll. The Lions shocked eighth-ranked Louisiana State and ended Notre Dame's 18-game winning streak to advance to Kansas City for the Final Four. Gross was praised for masterful use of his bench and a full-court press which confused tourney opponents. Penn State has had two teams finish in the nation's Top 10 (1942: No. 10 Dunkel Index) and Gross was a key figure on both.

A World War II Purple Heart veteran, Gross was wounded in 1944, following one of the early amphibious landings on the coast of France. He returned to PSU as a graduate assistant coach in 1945 and earned his master's degree in 1947. He was the first coach in NCAA tourney history (1952) to also have

JOHN EGLI

Years: 1955-68 (14)
Record: 187-135 (.581)
Postseason: 2 NCAA (1-3), 1 NIT (0-1)

The all-time winningest coach in Penn State basketball history, John Egli, like his predecessor, Elmer Gross, was a John Lawther disciple. In 14 seasons at the helm, Egli guided the Nittany Lions to an overall mark of 187-135, including NCAA bids in 1955 and 1965 and an NIT berth in 1966. A native of Williamsport, Pa., Egli was a co-captain on the 1943 Penn State basketball team and was named to the NCAA East Regional all-tournament team in 1942.

Egli entered military service in 1943. He received the Purple Heart after being wounded at Bastogne on Christmas Day, 1944, and was hospitalized in England for six months. In 1947, he was appointed instructor of physical education and director of the intramural and varsity athletic programs at Penn State-DuBois.

Two years later, Egli was named assistant coach at University Park under Elmer Gross. After five seasons, he was elevated to head coach in 1954-55. His first team topped 2,000 points for the first time in school history. He was one of the nation's foremost authorities on the tactics and strategy of the zone defense. His teams ran off a string of 15-5, 16-7, 20-4 and 18-6 records between 1963 and 1966.

In 1962, Egli presented the sliding zone defense at the National Association of Basketball Coaches convention in Louisville, Ky. Four years later, he was installed as the fourth vice president of the NABC. His book, Sliding Zone Defenses for Winning Basketball, still is used by many coaches. Egli died in 1982; he was posthumously inducted into the Pennsylvania and Clearfield County Sports Halls of Fame.

JOHN BACH

Years: 1969-78 (10)
Record: 122-121 (.502)

A 1948 Fordham graduate, John Bach was considered one of the giants in the coaching profession. He arrived at Penn State in 1968, after 18 seasons as head coach and 11 years as athletic director at his alma mater. A schoolboy star at St. John's Prep in Brooklyn, N.Y., Bach's collegiate playing career was interrupted by World War II and four years of service as a Naval officer.

He played two seasons of professional basketball with the Boston Celtics and Hartford before returning to Fordham as head coach. He guided the Rams to an overall mark of 292-193 and appearances in two NCAA Tournaments and five NITs.

At Penn State, Bach's teams were renowned for their pressure man-to-man defense with four squads ranked in the nation's top 20 in scoring defense. His teams posted back-to-back records of 17-8 and 15-8 in 1972 and 1973 respectively, behind Brooklyn native Ron Brown. He coached Penn State through 1977-78.

Bach served as Henry Iba's assistant at the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich, when the U.S. lost the controversial title game to the Soviet Union. Following a stint as head coach of the Golden State Warriors (1983-86), he served as an assistant coach to Phil Jackson and the three-time NBA champion (1991-93) Chicago Bulls. Bach was inducted into the NIT Hall of Fame in March, 1995. He passed away in January 2016 at the age of 91.

DICK HARTER

Years: 1979-83 (5)
Record: 79-61 (.564)
Postseason: NIT (0-1)

Dick Harter sparked a rebirth of basketball at Penn State when he was appointed head coach in 1978. He directed the Nittany Lions to the 1980 NIT, the school's first postseason appearance in 14 years.

A native of Pottstown, Pa., Harter served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps for three years following graduation from Pennsylvania in 1953. He was the freshman athletic director at Penn for seven years (1958-65) before a one-year stint as head basketball coach at Rider, producing a 16-9 season. Harter returned to Penn as head coach for the 1966-67 school year and in five seasons fashioned an 88-44 mark, including a 25-2 NCAA team in 1970 and a 28-1 NCAA squad in 1971.

He left Penn for Oregon in 1971 and in six seasons in Eugene guided the Ducks to a 113-81 mark and three NIT appearances. He joined the NBA coaching ranks as an assistant to Chuck Daly with the Detroit Pistons, and later became the first head coach of the Charlotte Hornets (1988-89). He passed away in March 2012 at the age of 81.

HEAD COACH
BRUCE PARKHILL

Years: 1984-95 (12)
Record: 181-169 (.517)
Postseason: 1 NCAA (1-1); 4 NIT (9-4)

A State College native, Bruce Parkhill directed Penn State into a new era — the Big Ten Conference. His patience was rewarded between 1989-92 when his teams compiled an overall mark of 87-40 and advanced to post-season play each year. His third Big Ten team finished 21-11 in 1994-95.

He began his coaching career in 1972 as a graduate assistant at Virginia after starring in three sports at Lock Haven University. At age 28, Parkhill was named head coach at William & Mary and in six seasons registered an 89-75 mark.

He was appointed head coach at Penn State prior to the 1983-84 season. Building from the bottom, his Nittany Lion teams demonstrated steady progress, going 53-84 in his first five seasons and then improving to 20-12, 25-9, 21-11 and 21-8. In 1990, Parkhill was named Atlantic 10 Conference Coach of the Year and the Lions went on to place third in the National Invitation Tournament. His 1991 club captured the Atlantic 10 championship and stunned UCLA in the NCAA Tournament. All 43 seniors who played for Parkhill at Penn State graduated. He resigned on Sept. 6, 1995. Parkhill is second in Penn State history in coaching wins.

HEAD COACH
JERRY DUNN

Years: 1996-2003 (8)
Record: 117-121 (.492)
Postseason: 2 NCAA (2-2); 2 NIT (8-2)

Jerry Dunn became the 10th head coach in Penn State history just before the start of the 1995-96 season. A long-time assistant under Bruce Parkhill, Dunn stepped in and guided Penn State to the NCAA Tournament and its first top 10 national ranking in his first season. He was the NABC District 3 Coach of the Year that season after the Lions were 21-7 that season, finishing a school best 12-6 in Big Ten play.

In 1997-98, Dunn guided Penn State to an 8-8 Big Ten finish and a superb post-season run that culminated with a spot in the NIT final. He became the fastest coach in Penn State history to reach 50 career wins as the Lions ended the year 19-13. Two years later, Penn State advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals and once again earned a trip to Madison Square Garden for the NIT semifinals. The Nittany Lions went 19-16 that season.

The 2000-01 season was a special and historic one for Penn State as the Nittany Lions again advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Penn State, the No. 7 seed, downed No. 10 Providence in the first round before shocking No. 2 seed North Carolina in the next round. Perhaps the biggest win in school history, the victory vaulted Penn State to its first-ever appearance in the 'modern day' NCAA Sweet 16. The Lions ended that campaign 21-12 and earned a postseason top-25 ranking (No. 25 Coaches Poll). He resigned on March 17, 2003.

HEAD COACH
ED DeCHELLIS

Years: 2004-2011 (8)
Record: 114-138 (.452)
Postseason: 1 NCAA (0-1); 2 NIT (5-1)
2009 NIT CHAMPIONS

Ed DeChellis became the 11th head coach in PSU history prior to the start of the 2003-04 season after a successful seven-year stint at East Tennessee State. An assistant coach at Penn State for 10 years under Bruce Parkhill and then Jerry Dunn, DeChellis guided the Lions to their first national tournament title (2009 NIT) and three postseason appearances, including the program's first NCAA appearance in a decade in 2011. The 2009 Big Ten Coach of the Year led his teams in posting a school-record 27 wins in 2009 and reached the program's first Big Ten Tournament Championship game in 2011.

DeChellis recruited and coached Penn State's first three members of the Big Ten All-Freshman team, including 2006 Big Ten Freshman of the Year Jamelle Cornley. He also brought in Talor Battle who would go on to become Penn State's all-time leading scorer with 2,213 points and the fourth player in NCAA history to record 2,000 points, 600 rebounds and 500 assists.

A graduate of Penn State (1982), DeChellis survived a battle with bladder cancer during his tenure and was a driving force pushing Penn State's Coaches vs. Cancer program to more than $1.5 million in funds raised by the end of his tenure. DeChellis was named the 2006 National Coaches vs. Cancer Man of the Year as he turned the Penn State program into one of the top five CVC programs in the nation. The yearly total marked more than a $100,000 increase in funds raised prior to his taking over as Penn State-CVC committee chairman. DeChellis left Penn State on May 23, 2011 to become head coach at the United States Naval Academy.

PATRICK CHAMBERS

Years: 2012-2020 (9)
Record: 148-150 (.492)
Postseason: 1 NIT (5-0); 1 CBI (1-1)
2018 NIT CHAMPIONS

Named the 12th head coach of the Nittany Lion basketball program in June 2011, Patrick Chambers stands fifth on Penn State's all-time wins list with 148 and his 56 conference wins are the most in the program's Big Ten era.

During the 2019-20 season, Chambers directed Penn State to a 21-10 record, its second 20-win season in three years, and the senior class became the winningest class in the Big Ten era with 76 victories. The 2019-20 Nittany Lions also earned the first Associated Press poll ranking since 1996, rising as high as No. 9.

Overall, Chambers and the Nittany Lions recorded 18 wins over opponents ranked in the AP top 25, most in program history, including three wins over top-five teams.

Chambers and the Nittany Lions powered through the 2018 postseason, advancing to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals for the second time, and returned to Madison Square Garden to capture the program's second NIT Championship. Chambers had Penn State positioned for a berth in the 2020 NCAA Tournament before it was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Nittany Lions earned more than 30 All-Big Ten Conference recognitions during Chambers' tenure with Lamar Stevens becoming only the second to earn first-team accolades twice. Josh Reaves was named the 2019 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and both Stevens and Reaves signed with NBA teams. All-Big Ten performers Tony Carr, the first Nittany Lion drafted since 1999, Tim Frazier and DJ Newbill, as well as several other players, went on to play in the professional ranks.

At the 2019 Final Four, Chambers accepted the Coaches vs. Cancer Collegiate Champion Award on behalf of the local committee members, volunteers and sponsors who helped make Coaches vs. Cancer of Penn State one of the top chapters

INTERIM HEAD COACH
JIM FERRY

Years: 2021 (1)
Record: 11-14 (.440)

Jim Ferry took over at interim head coach for the 2020-21 season. He guided the Nittany Lions to an 11-14 overall record and 7-12 mark in the Big Ten.

Ferry led the Nittany Lions in a season like no other as the world navigated the COVID-19 pandemic. He coached the Nittany Lions to a pair of wins over nationally-ranked foes in No. 14/13 Wisconsin and No. 15/15 Virginia Tech as Penn State navigated a schedule that was ranked the strongest in the country by KenPom.

Following his interim appointment with Penn State, Ferry went on to be named head coach at UMBC in April 2021.

ALL-TIME GREAT PLAYERS

JOHN AMAECHI

C / 6-10 / MANCHESTER, ENGLAND

A standout student and athlete at Penn State, John Amaechi became a successful NBA player for the Cleveland Cavaliers, Orlando Magic and Utah Jazz after breaking into the league as a free agent in 1995 with the Cavaliers.

Twice named an Academic All-American (1994 & 1995), Amaechi was named the Academic All-American of the Year in 1995 as well as earning an Anson Mount Scholar-Athlete Award and an NCAA postgraduate scholarship. A transfer from Vanderbilt, Amaechi posted career averages of 15.6 ppg and 8.8 rpg in three seasons while earning NABC All-District honors in 1994 and 1995.

Amaechi also earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in 1995 and third team honors in 1993 and 1994. He posted better than 16 points a game to earn the John Lawther team MVP in both 1994 and 1995. Amaechi led the Lions to a third-place finish in the 1995 NIT, leading the team with 17 points in the third-place game vs. Canisius.

He finished his career at No. 6 on the all-time scoring list with 1,310 career points, the second-most by a Lion in less than four seasons behind D.J. Newbill, and had 38 double-doubles. He is one of just five players to post at least 1,300 points and 700 rebounds on their career at Penn State. He held the Nittany Lions' top spot in career blocks with 191 following his playing days in the Blue & White.

JESSE ARNELLE

F / 6-5 / NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y.

Jesse Arnelle holds the mantel of the greatest Nittany Lion basketball player of all time. Penn State's all-time leading rebounder (1,238) and only first-team All-American, he held the school's career scoring mark (2,138) for 56 years and owns Penn State records with career averages of 21.0 ppg and 12.1 rpg. Arnelle still holds six career records, six season records and three game records at Penn State, among them: most points in a half (30), field goals in a game (20) and rebounds in game (27).

Arnelle is the only Nittany Lion to be named a first-team All-American, earning the honor from the Helms Foundation in 1954. He was also named second-team All-America by Helms in 1955, third-team All-America in 1952 by Helms and Colliers and honorable-mention All-America by the Associated Press and UPI in 1954 and 1955. Arnelle was also named to the All-Pennsylvania team from 1952-55.

He posted Penn State season-record numbers of 26.1 ppg and 15.3 rpg during his senior campaign and is the only Lion to lead Penn State in scoring and rebounding in four straight seasons. He led the Lions to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including Penn State's only Final Four appearance, and highest final season ranking of No. 9 (AP) in 1954.

Arnelle holds Penn State's all-time NCAA Tournament scoring record with 202 points in his record three NCAA trips (he shares the mark for appearances with Ron Weidenhammer, 1952, '54, '55). He was named MVP of the 1954 NCAA East Regional and to the 1954 NCAA Final Four All-Tournament team. Arnelle's four career 40-point games, including a career-best 44 vs. Bucknell in 1955, are the most in Penn State history and he posted five of Penn State's top six single-game scoring marks, including a Penn State record 15 games of 30 points or more.

A four-year starter and 1955 captain, Penn State went 71-31 during Arnelle's career, including a 5-5 NCAA Tournament mark. Arnelle continued his spectacular career for the Ft. Wayne Pistons during the 1955-56 season and went on to become a prominent lawyer and the president of Penn State University's Board of Trustees.

Arnelle passed away in October 2020.

ALL-TIME GREAT PLAYERS

FREDDIE BARNES

G / 6-0 / GREENSBORO, N.C.

One of the best point guards to ever don the Nittany Lion jersey, Freddie Barnes finished his career with then-Penn State record 600 assists and became one of three Nittany Lions to lead Penn State in assists in four seasons. He is also one of three (Monroe Brown and David Degitz) to reach the postseason every year of their career helping lead Penn State to three NIT and one NCAA Tournament appearance and four-straight 20-win seasons under coach Bruce Parkhill.

His teams posted a Penn State record 87 wins (87-40) over a four-year period (1989-92). Barnes' career average of 4.7 apg topped Penn State's career chart until 2014 and still ranks second. At the conclusion of his Nittany Lion career, his 1,342 career points were good for third all-time and his 158 steals total currently ranks ninth. Barnes is one of five Penn State players to post at least 1,000 points, 400 rebounds and 300 assists on their career.

He posted three seasons of at least 300 points and 150 assists, only nine such seasons have been posted in PSU history. Barnes helped lead Penn State a 1991 NCAA Tournament appearance and first round upset of No. 16-ranked UCLA and a third-place finish in the 1990 NIT, as he earned all-tournament honors. His 93 career NIT points rank fifth all-time.

Barnes was the MVP of the 1991 Atlantic 10 Tournament, as he led Penn State to its first conference tournament title with a victory over George Washington in Rec Hall.

TALOR BATTLE

G / 6-0 / ALBANY, N.Y.

Penn State's all-time leading scorer with 2,213 points, Talor Battle is just one of four NCAA Division I players to record at least 2,000 points, 600 rebounds and 500 assists. At the end of his career, he owned the PSU career record for starts (131) while averaging nearly 36 minutes per game over a four-year career. He set the Big Ten record for career minutes played (4,799).

A clutch performer who recorded three game-winning or tying shots at the buzzer on his career and numerous late-game scoring runs to lead the Lions to victory, Battle ranks fourth in career assists (517), third in threes (317), third in field goals (722), and fifth in free throws (452). He became just the second player to lead Penn State in scoring in four-straight seasons.

An Associated Press honorable-mention All-American in 2011, he was the first Lion to twice earn first-team All-Big Ten, first-team NABC All-District and first-team USBWA All-Distrist honors and the first to earn team MVP honors in four seasons. He averaged 16.5 ppg, 4.7 rpg and 3.8 apg over his career.

He set a then-Penn State season assist record with 189 in 2009, while helping lead Penn State to the 2009 NIT Championship, the program's first national tournament title. He was named to the NIT All-Tournament team and in 2011, earned Big Ten All-Tournament Team honors when he helped lead the Lions to their first-ever Big Ten Tournament Championship game and first NCAA Tournament appearance in a decade.

Battle led the Lions in assists in three seasons, in rebounding in one and, at the time, posted the program's second-highest season point (687) and three-point field goal totals (106) in 2011. His seven 30-point games rank second in program history and he posted 48 career 20-point outings. His 20.2 ppg average in 2011 ranked second in the Big Ten and was the highest for a Lion in 48 years.

He also led the 2009 U.S. World University Games team in scoring while earning a bronze medal.

Battle joined the Nittany Lion staff as an assistant coach for the 2020-21 season.

ALL-TIME GREAT PLAYERS

CALVIN BOOTH

C / 6-11 / REYNOLDSBURG, OHIO

The 1998 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, Calvin Booth ended his career as not only the leading shot blocker in Penn State history, but also in the history of the Big Ten (he currently stands second) with 428 career swats.

After his senior season, he became the highest drafted Nittany Lion in history when he was taken with the 35th pick overall by the Washington Wizards in the 1999 NBA Draft. He went on to a 10-year NBA career. The 6-11, 220-pounder, led the Big Ten in blocked shots all four years that he played.

Booth owns the single-game record of 10 blocks posted vs. Dayton and George Mason in 1998 and posted the only Lion triple-double on record with 19 points, 10 rebounds and 10 blocks vs. Dayton in the 1998 NIT. He finished his career with 1,288 points (11.3 ppg) and 728 rebounds (6.4 ppg) holding current rankings of 19th and ninth all-time, respectively.

The three-year starter and two-time captain (1997 & 1998) helped Penn State to the 1996 NCAA Tournament and 1998 NIT final. He posted 15.3 ppg and 8.7 rpg to earn second-team All-Big Ten honors.

He was named general manager of the NBA's Denver Nuggets in 2020.

JAMELLE CORNLEY

F / 6-5 / COLUMBUS, OHIO

One of the most beloved Nittany Lions of all-time, Jamelle Cornley led Penn State to its first national tournament title as the Lions claimed the 2009 NIT Championship in Madison Square Garden. He was named the Tournament MVP after logging 18 points and seven rebounds in the NIT Championship Game win over Baylor.

A four-year starter and 2009 captain, Cornley averaged 12.9 ppg and 6.2 rpg playing in 122 games and starting 109 as a Nittany Lion. At the end of his career, he was fourth all-time in scoring and tied for fourth in rebounding with 1,579 career points and 755 career rebounds. Though barely standing 6-5 as a post player in the Big Ten, he averaged double-figures in each of his four seasons, hit 51.1 percent from the floor for his career and recorded 12 career double-doubles while earning NABC All-District honors in 2009.

The 2006 Big Ten Freshman of the Year, he was a second-team All-Big Ten selection in 2009, third team in 2008 and 2009 and honorable mention in 2007 and 2008. He helped Penn State post a school-record 27 wins in 2008-09 and also led Penn State to the 2006 NIT as a freshman.

TONY CARR

G / 6-5 / PHILADELPHIA, PA.

A member of Penn State's highest-ranked recruiting class, Tony Carr helped the Nittany Lions claim the program's second NIT title in 2018 in just his sophomore year.

The calm and collected point guard, a two-time winner of the John Lawther team MVP award, Carr became the first Penn State men's basketball sophomore to score 1,000 career points and the first sophomore to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors.

He led the team in scoring average (13.2) and assists (139) in his rookie campaign, breaking the record for most double-figure scoring games by a freshman (26) and followed that season with a spectacular sophomore effort. Carr led the Nittany Lions in scoring (19.6) and was the Big Ten's stat champion for league games (20.1), while averaging 5.0 assists per game in 2017-18.

His name is etched in the Penn State record books, career lists and memories as playmaker. His game-winning 3-pointer to defeat No. 13 Ohio State in January 2018, sparked the Nittany Lions to their second-highest win total in program history.

Carr finished the record-breaking 2017-18 season with 725 points, second behind only Jesse Arnelle, and he finished his collegiate career with 60 double-figure scoring games and as the Nittany Lions' assists leader 51 times.

Drafted by the NBA's New Orleans Pelicans in 2018, Carr has played in Europe and returned to the U.S. to play for the New Orleans G League affiliate in 2020.

ALL-TIME GREAT PLAYERS

GEARY CLAXTON

F / 6-5 / WEST HAVEN, CONN.

An athletic scorer and rebounder, Geary Claxton led Penn State in scoring in three-straight seasons and is one of just three players in Nittany Lion history to record at least 1,500 points and 700 rebounds on their career.

A four-year starter, his 1,542 career points ranked seventh and he was tied for fourth with 755 career rebounds when he finished his Nittany Lion career. A first-team USBWA All-Region and NABC All-District pick in 2006, Claxton was also recognized as a second-team NABC pick in 2007 and earned second-team All-Big Ten honors in 2007 and third-team honors in 2006.

A 2005 Big Ten All-Freshman Team selection who was four times honored as the Big Ten Player of the Week, Claxton posted 26 career double-doubles and led Penn State in rebounding in two seasons. He was averaging 17.5 ppg and 8.3 rpg in his senior season, a pace that would have placed him as the Nittany Lions' third all-time leading scorer and rebounder, when he suffered a torn ACL in the 16th game of the season and missed the last 15 games of his career.

Claxton helped lead Penn State to the 2006 NIT after joining the team in 2004-05 following three losing campaigns.

JOE CRISPIN

G / 6-0 / PITMAN, N.J.

A four-year starter and 2001 captain, Joe Crispin starred for Penn State during one of the program's best periods as the team made three postseason appearances during his career, including trips to the 2001 NCAA Sweet 16, 1998 NIT final and 2000 NIT semifinals.

Crispin finished his Penn State career as the leader in career minutes played (4,063), field goals attempted (1,611), three-point field goals attempted (885) and free throw percentage (.885) and was the Lions' second all-time scorer with 1,986 points. Following his final season, he ranked second all-time with 308 career threes and was third with 485 assists.

Crispin scored 21 points in an upset victory of No. 6-ranked and No. 2-seeded North Carolina in the 2001 NCAA Tournament to help Penn State reach the Sweet 16, widely considered the greatest game in Penn State history. He also nailed an off-balance 22-foot three to knock off No. 2 ranked Michigan State in the quarterfinals of the Big Ten Tournament that season, the highest ranked team Penn State has ever beaten.

He ranks seventh among career NCAA Tournament scorers (46 points) and second among NIT scorers (146). Crispin earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in 2001 (coaches), and second team in 2000 (coaches and media) and 2001 (media). He was a Big Ten All-Tournament team honoree in 2000 and 2001 and earned four Big Ten Player of the Week awards. Crispin averaged 19.5 ppg in 2001 and was named NABC All-District first team while earning a share of the John Lawther team MVP award.

Penn State posted a 72-55 mark in his four seasons. He later joined the Los Angeles Lakers in 2001 as a free agent and enjoyed a highly successful career in Europe for more than a decade.

Crispin is currently the head men's basketball coach at Rowan University in New Jersey.

DAN EARL

G / 6-3 / MEDFORD LAKES, N.J.

One of the most talented point guards in Penn State history, Dan Earl battled through numerous injuries in a career that spanned six seasons. A four-year starter and two-year captain, Earl would miss most of two seasons due to injury following his junior season when he helped lead Penn State to the 1996 NCAA Tournament. He returned for his senior campaign in 1998-99.

As a sophomore, he helped lead Penn State to a third-place finish in the 1995 NIT and Penn State finished second in 1998 NIT with Earl serving as an injured captain. A second-team All-Big Ten selection in 1996 and third team in 1999, Earl averaged 10.6 points and 4.8 assists over his career.

The 1999 third-team CoSIDA Academic All-American set a Penn State single-season record of 181 assists as a sophomore (a mark which stood until 2009) and ranks third all-time with 574 career assists. At the conclusion of his Nittany Lion career, he ranked ninth all-time with 1,256 career points, fifth with 162 career steals and second with 194 threes.

Earl is one of three players to lead Penn State in assists in four seasons, posting 100 or more in each campaign, and also led the Lions in steals in three seasons. Earl's average of 5.7 assists per game in 1995 was the third-best PSU season mark at the time.

Earl returned to Penn State as an assistant coach from 2005-11. He is currently the head coach at VMI.

SHEP GARNER

G / 6-2 / CHESTER, PA.

With his decision to forge his own path at Penn State, guard Shep Garner had a major impact on the Nittany Lion program.

Garner finished his career as the all-time No. 5 scorer in Penn State history with 1,629 points and played 4,443 minutes, second only to Big Ten Conference career record holder Talor Battle (4,799). In his final game in a Blue & White uniform, leading his team to 26 wins, second-most in program history, and the 2018 NIT championship, he broke both the Big Ten and Penn State records for 3-point field goals in a season (120) and the Nittany Lion record for career 3-point field goals made (336).

Garner personified Penn State basketball and was a part of 75 wins during his time in Happy Valley, most in a four-year span in the Big Ten era. Garner had 81 double-figure scoring games in his career with 18 games with 20 or more points. His two 30-point games were especially memorable. As a sophomore, he hit 10 field goals, including eight 3-pointers for 30 points at Boston College for the Big Ten/ACC Challenge victory.

In his final Big Ten Tournament game, a semifinal contest vs. No. 5 Purdue, Garner, who wore number 33, scored 33 points on March 3 (3/3), leaving it all on the court. He took possession of Penn State's Big Ten Tournament career scoring record with 135 points.

Garner is pursuing professional playing opportunities overseas.

TIM FRAZIER

G / 6-3 / HOUSTON, TEXAS

One of the truest Nittany Lions on and off the court, Tim Frazier finished his career as Penn State's all-time leader in career assists (641) and has three of the top 10 single-season assist totals in the record book.

He averaged 14.9 points, a Big Ten-leading 5.4 assists and 1.6 steals per game during his comeback campaign in 2013-14 following a season-ending Achilles tendon rupture the year before. He was named to the All-Big Ten third team and produced Penn State's 18th 500-point season performance, finishing the 2013-14 campaign with 508 points.

Frazier finished that season with 182 assists, at the time, the third-most of any PSU player in a single season. He owns two undergraduate degrees from Penn State and was a Lowe's Senior CLASS Award finalist in his final year, illustrating his dedication to all aspects of being a true student-athlete.

Frazier's NBA career has seen time with the Philadelphia 76ers, Portland Trailblazers, New Orleans Pelicans, Washington Wizards, Milwaukee Bucks, Detroit Pistons, and Memphis Grizzlies.

GENE HARRIS

C / 6-3 / PITTSBURGH, PA.

One of the most prolific scorers and rebounders in Penn State history, Gene Harris holds the Lions' all-time game scoring record with 46 points vs. Holy Cross in 1961.

Harris posted career averages of 14.8 ppg and 11.0 rebounds per game in just three seasons and 69 games in the era of freshman ineligibility. He posted 18.7 ppg and 13.0 rpg during his senior season of 1962.

The three-year starter and 1962 captain was second all-time with 762 career rebounds after his last game in the Blue & White and third with 1,018 career points. He led Penn State in rebounding all three years of his career, never posting less than 10.0 rebounds per game, and in scoring twice.

TITUS IVORY

G / 6-4 / CHARLOTTE, N.C.

An all-around player, Titus Ivory ranks among Penn State's career leaders in points, assists and steals and helped lead Penn State during one of the program's best periods as the team made three post-season appearances during his career, including trips to the 2001 NCAA Sweet 16, 1998 NIT final and 2000 NIT semifinals.

Following his four-year career, Ivory stood seventh all-time in scoring with 1,369 points, third in 3-pointers (206), sixth in assists (443) and third in steals (218). He led the team in assists and steals in 2001 and his team-leading steal total of 84 was the second-best mark in program history, at the time. He is one of three Lions to record 200 career steals and one of seven to log at least 1,000 points and 400 assists on a career.

A third-team All-Big Ten pick in 2001, he played in 129 career games and ranks fourth among NCAA Tournament scorers with 54 points, including 21 points in an upset victory of sixth-ranked and No. 2 seed North Carolina in the 2001 NCAA Tournament, widely considered the greatest game in Penn State history. He went on to a long career playing professionally overseas.

MIKE LANG

C / 6-9 / LOMBARD, ILL.

One of the most prolific rebounders in Penn State history, Mike Lang joined Jesse Arnelle and Mike Watkins as the only three players in Nittany Lion history to post at least 1,000 career points and 800 career rebounds.

A 1983 first-team All-Atlantic 10 selection, Lang stands third to Arnelle and Watkins in career rebounding with 912, and recorded 24 career double-doubles. Lang led Penn State in rebounding in three-straight seasons from 1981-83, posting more than 200 in each season.

Lang finished his Penn State career 10th on the all-time scoring list with 1,014 points. He led the Nittany Lions in 1980 and 1981 in steals and ranked third on Penn State's career chart with 133 in his career He twice earned the John Lawther Team MVP award in 1982 and 1983.

A 1983 captain, he averaged 9.2 ppg and 8.3 rpg as a four-year starter. He helped lead the Lions to the 1980 NIT and was an eighth-round draft pick by the New York Knicks in 1983.

ALL-TIME GREAT PLAYERS

PETE LISICKY

G / 6-4 / WHITEHALL, PA.

Known as "The Whitehall Rifle," Pete Lisicky was one of the greatest sharp shooters in Penn State history owning the career record for 3-pointers made (332) until it was broken in 2018. His record for consecutive free throws made (39) still stands.

With a career average of 13.6 ppg, he earned the John Lawther team MVP award after the 1997 and 1998 seasons, 1996 AP honorable-mention All-America honors, second-team All-Big Ten honors in 1997 and third team in 1997 and 1998. Lisicky also holds the single-game record for most 3-point field goals made with nine against Penn on December 9, 1995. With 1,605 career points, he ranked second all-time in scoring following his senior season.

He helped Penn State to a 1996 NCAA Tournament appearance, scoring 17 points on five 3-pointers in a first round loss to Arkansas. A three-year starter and 1998 captain, Lisicky helped lead the Lions to three postseason appearances including a third place finish in the 1995 NIT and a second place finish in the 1998 NIT.

Penn State posted a 71-48 mark during his career. A two-time second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American, he ranks third all-time among Lions in NIT scoring with 124 points.

JOSH REAVES

G / 6-5 / FAIRFAX, VA.

One of the most versatile players in Penn State basketball history, Josh Reaves completed his career with 1,079 points, 540 rebounds, 250 steals and 310 assists. Reaves' ability to impact the game on both ends of the floor provided fans with fearsome dunks and a defense that stymied opponents.

The Fairfax, Virginia, product was voted the 2019 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, and he was the first Nittany Lion named the league's All-Defensive Team twice (2018, 2019). Reaves is the only player in Big Ten history to lead the conference in steals in three consecutive seasons.

A four-year starter, Reaves possessed a double-digit scoring average his junior (10.6) and senior (10.6) seasons. He ranks second all-time in career steals (250) and holds two spots on Penn State's single-season top 10 steals list.

A human highlight reel, Reaves' dunks were often featured among SportCenter's top plays. One of Reaves' most memorable plays was his game-winning dunk vs. Ohio State in the 2018 Big Ten Tournament in Madison Square Garden on a pass delivered from sophomore guard Tony Carr.

Reaves signed with the Dallas Mavericks in summer 2019 and was with the team for the 2019-20 season.

D.J. NEWBILL

G / 6-4 / PHILADELPHIA, PA.

D.J. Newbill did more in three years as a Nittany Lion than many players do over a full four-year career. He is ranked fourth in Penn State career scoring, producing 1,812 points with a three-year scoring average (18.3 ppg) that is second only to Jesse Arnelle.

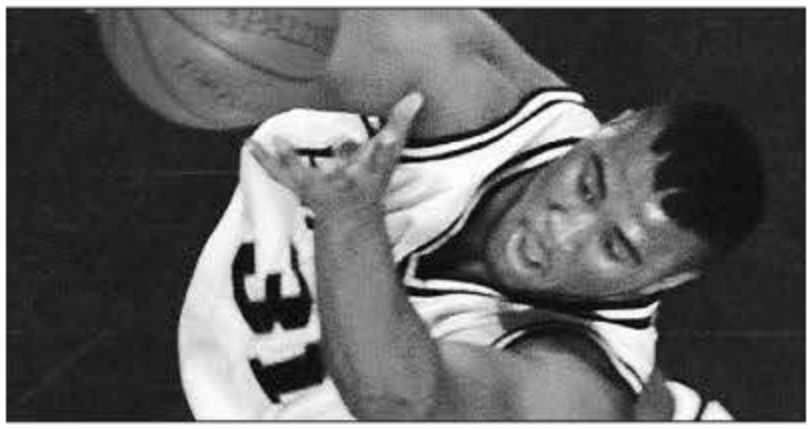

An All-Big Ten selection each of his final two seasons, Newbill became the third PSU player all-time to produce back-to-back 600-plus point campaigns and is just the second PSU player with three consecutive 500-plus point seasons. At the time, his senior year point total (704) trailed only Arnelle on the single-season records list.

Including his freshman season at Southern Mississippi, Newbill had 2,105 career points and was the only Big Ten player active in 2014-15 to pass that mark, and one of just nine other active Division I players.

Newbill, named the 2020 Defensive Player of the Year for the National Basketball League in his second year with the Cairns Taipans, was a second-team all-NBL selection. Newbill is now playing with Osaka Evessa.

JARRETT STEPHENS

F / 6-7 / FERNDALE, MICH.

Penn State's first consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection and a USBWA All-Region pick in 2000, Jarrett Stephens was one of Penn State's most effective Big Ten post players. He produced 1,372 points, good for fifth on the all-time scoring list at the end of his collegiate career, and collected 703 rebounds for eighth all-time.

His 368 rebounds in 2000 rank as the second-most in a season at Penn State. He posted stellar marks of 18.8 ppg and 10.5 rpg during his senior season and set Penn State's single-season field goal percentage record hitting 64 percent from the floor in his junior year, a record that stood until the 2017-18 season.

Stephens moved to the top of Penn State's all-time career field goal percentage list with a shooting percentage of 58.3, a mark that only recently moved to the No. 2 spot. He averaged 11.4 ppg and 5.9 rpg in 120 career games. He was named to the NIT All-Tournament team after helping to lead Penn State to a third-place finish in the 2000 NIT and ranks as the Lions' all-time leading NIT scorer with 147 points, including 28 in the third-place game victory over NC State.

He is one of just six players to post at least 1,300 points and 700 rebounds in their Penn State career.

Stephens participated in the 2001 NBA Draft Combine, the first Nittany Lion to garner an invitation to the event and went on to play professionally in Europe and South America for nearly a decade.

LAMAR STEVENS

F / 6-8 / PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Lamar Stevens returned for his senior campaign to lead the 2019-20 Nittany Lions to 21 wins, 11 Big Ten Conference wins and their first Associated Press poll ranking since 1996. Stevens helped position Penn State for an NCAA Tournament berth as the Nittany Lions reeled off a program record eight-game win streak in league play and held a No. 9 national ranking.

During his four-year career, Penn State won 76 games, most in any four-year span in its Big Ten era, and had 33 Big Ten victories, also a high mark. Included in those totals were 12 Associated Press Top 25 opponents. In his final year, the Nittany Lions captured difficult road wins at Michigan, Nebraska, Michigan State and Purdue as well an epic battle vs. No. 23 Iowa at The Palestra.

A two-time first-team All-Big Ten Conference selection and NABC and USBWA All-District pick, Stevens started all 135 games in his career with 115 double-figure scoring games and 4,532 career minutes played. He set the Penn State mark for career field goals with 801 and held two spots on the single-season list for baskets made. Stevens stands in the Penn State career top five for rebounds (875), blocked shots (127) and free throws made (519) and tied for eighth with 16 double-doubles.

Stevens was one of only two Nittany Lions in program history, Jesse Arnelle the other, with more than 2,000 career points and 800 career rebounds. With the cancellation of the Big Ten Tournament due to the COVID-19 pandemic, his career came to an end with 2,207 points, ranked No. 2 on the program's all-time scoring list.

Stevens was honored as Penn State's 2019-20 Male Student-Athlete of the Year and named to the Senior CLASS All-America second team.

In November 2020, Stevens signed with the Cleveland Cavaliers.

MIKE WATKINS

F / 6-9 / PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Mike Watkins completed his career as one of only three Nittany Lions with 900 (953) career rebounds, second-all-time, and 1,000 career points (1,169). One of the most effective rim protectors in Penn State history, his 265 career blocked shots rank second on PSU's all-time list and he also joined the company of other big men on that Big Ten Conference career top-10 list.

Selected to the 2018 Big Ten All-Defensive Team, Watkins also made his mark on the offensive end for the Nittany Lions. He averaged 12.1 points per game during the 2017-18 season and connected on 68.5 percent of his field goal attempts. While that single-season mark ranked second on the Big Ten chart, his 70.0 percent in league games was the top figure that year and stands third in Big Ten history.

Watkins made an introduction as a freshman, swatting away 90 shots during 2016-17 and setting the Big Ten Conference Tournament single-game record with eight (2017). His 59.0 percent field goal percentage that year rose to the top of the Penn State career chart and he completed his career in the same spot (59.7 percent).

For his four-year career, Watkins had 33 double-doubles, second-highest total all-time, which included freshman-record eight in 2016-17. He led the Nittany Lions in blocked shots all four years, with three listings among the program's top 10, and was the top rebounder in three seasons.

In addition to his other statistical milestones, Watkins finished his career with 558 rebounds in Big Ten games, passing John Amaechi (1993-95) for the top spot. He also had the distinction of joining Jesse Arnelle as the only other Nittany Lion to collect at least 500 rebounds by the end of his sophomore season, tying Arnelle with 525.

BOB WEISS

G / 6-3 / ATHENS, PA.

A 1965 Associated Press honorable-mention All-American, Bob Weiss was not only able to find success at the collegiate level but at the professional level as well. In 1965, he was drafted by Philadelphia in the third round and went on to play for Seattle, Milwaukee, Chicago and Buffalo during a 13-year NBA career.

Weiss posted a career average of 16.3 points per game in his three years at Penn State scoring 1,091 points in only 67 games in the era of freshman ineligibility. That total was good for third all-time on the Penn State scoring charts as he never averaged less than 15.3 ppg in a season.

Weiss' 38 points vs. Duke in 1965 still stands tied for the sixth-best single-game scoring mark in PSU history. A 1965 All-Pennsylvania selection, Weiss was a three-year starter who helped lead Penn State to a 51-16 record in three seasons, including a 20-4 mark and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1965.

A member of the 1966-67 Philadelphia 76ers championship team, Weiss spent more than 30 years coaching in the NBA with head coaching stops at Seattle, San Antonio, Atlanta and the Los Angeles Clippers. Weiss spent three seasons in China, two as the head coach of the Shanzi Zhongyu Brave Dragons and one season leading the Shandong Lions.

In 2016, Weiss was nominated for the Tex Winter Assistant Coach Lifetime Impact Award.

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

Penn State's historic mission of teaching, research, and public service — launched under the most modest of circumstances more than 150 years ago — now reaches into virtually all parts of Pennsylvania. Consider, for example, that the University now has 24 campuses across the Commonwealth, putting a Penn State education within practical reach of nearly every Pennsylvanian. In fact, more than 95 percent of Pennsylvania residents live within a 30-mile radius of a Penn State campus and about 70 percent of Penn State's undergraduates are Pennsylvania residents.

Penn State is Pennsylvania's largest nongovernmental employer and has employees and expenditures in every one of its 67 counties. The University generates a total economic impact across the Commonwealth that surpasses $11.6 billion annually and is consistently ranked among the top 1% of the world's universities.

Part of that impact is derived from Penn State's research program, which brought more than $633 million in federal funds to Pennsylvania last year, and an additional $101 million from private industry. In addition, as part of its Invent Penn State initiative, the University has funded 21 innovation hubs, designed to bolster entrepreneurship and economic development in communities surrounding its campuses across Pennsylvania.

Penn State's outreach and online programs — ranging from 4H to Cooperative Extension, from summer camps to public broadcasting — provide educational and service programs to more than a million Pennsylvania households annually.

The University's presence throughout Pennsylvania today contrasts sharply with its humble beginnings. Chartered as a college of scientific agriculture, the institution was located in rural Centre County after James Irvin, a partner in the Centre Furnace iron works (remains of which can be seen today along East College Avenue), offered to donate 200 acres of farmland for a campus.

Founding President Evan Pugh wanted the fledgling institution to embody a new approach to higher education that blended classical studies with subjects that had practical value. He joined similar visionaries in other states in convincing Congress to pass the Morrill Land-Grant Act in 1862. The act gave individual states tracts of federal land to sell; the proceeds supported colleges that agreed to include engineering, science and the liberal arts as well as agriculture in their course of studies. In 1863, the Pennsylvania legislature designated Penn State the Commonwealth's sole land-grant institution. The lawmakers in effect bestowed on the privately incorporated college a public character. In return for state support, the institution assumed obligations of teaching, research and service that are normally associated with publicly owned land-grant universities in other states.

By the 1890s Penn State was making its mark. It ranked among the nation's 10 largest undergraduate engineering schools, a distinction it still holds. It established one of the nation's first collegiate agricultural experiment stations, and Professor Whitman Jordan's pioneering research on using fertilizers for soil enrichment had global impact on crop yields.

Penn State in 1871 became one of the first land-grant schools in the Northeast to admit women, graduated its first international student in 1890, and its first African-American student in 1905. Today, Penn State draws more than 9,000 students from around the world to study at its campuses, and the international students, researchers and scholars who come to Penn State represent more than 140 countries.

In the early 1900s, President Edwin E. Sparks supported a number of efforts to "carry the college to the people," as he liked to say. Technical institutes were established in various locations statewide for engineering education, beginning with an evening school in Allentown in 1910. In 1912, Penn State helped create a system of county agents in agriculture and home economics. Today, the Penn State World Campus, which offers one curriculum at multiple access points to meet people where they are, builds on that outreach tradition.

But undergraduate education remained foremost. Enrollment surpassed 5,000 students by 1936, including those attending several undergraduate centers that were created for students who, in the depths of the Great Depression, could not afford to leave their hometowns to get a college education. The centers offered the first year of baccalaureate studies and were the predecessors of today's statewide system of campuses. Thanks to this innovative approach to higher education, Penn State in the 1930s became Pennsylvania's largest single source of baccalaureate degrees, a distinction it holds to this day.

Following World War II, Penn State underwent unprecedented expansion, first to meet the needs of returning military veterans and later to accommodate the Baby Boom generation. Total enrollment at all Penn State campuses climbed to 40,000 by 1970.

The University also emerged on the national scene as a research powerhouse in fields as diverse as dairy science, acoustics, psychology and diesel engineering. The expansion of research went hand in hand with a steady increase in the number of graduate students. The University awarded its first graduate degree — a master's degree in scientific agriculture — in 1862, and the Graduate School was established in 1922. But overall graduate enrollment remained modest until the 1950s, then swelled steadily. The Graduate School has awarded to date approximately 130,000 master's, doctoral and other advanced degrees.

The University Park campus is Penn State's administrative and research hub. In addition, there are 19 primarily undergraduate campuses; Penn State Health Milton S. Hershey Medical Center and the College of Medicine; the Pennsylvania College of Technology; Penn State Law; Dickinson Law; the Penn State Great Valley School of Graduate Professional Studies; and the Penn State World Campus.

To date, Penn State has awarded more than 909,000 degrees, hallmarks of an educational experience second to none in quality. In addition, Penn State alumni — including 371,000 in Pennsylvania alone — have job- and social-networking opportunities that no other college or university in the Commonwealth can surpass.

ERIC J. BARRON

President
Florida State '72 (B.S.)
University of Miami '76 (M.S.)
University of Miami '80 (Ph.D.)

ERIC J. BARRON took the helm of Pennsylvania's flagship public university on May 12, 2014, arriving from Florida State University, where he had been president for four years. No stranger to Happy Valley, he had previously spent 20 years of his career at Penn State, serving as a faculty member and dean of the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences.

Barron has more than 40 years of leadership experience in academic administration, education, research and public service, and a track record as a talented manager of fiscal policy within large and complex institutions. In recognition of his expertise and leadership in higher education, he served as chairman of the Commission on Economic and Community Engagement (CECE) for the Association of Public Land-grant Universities (APLU) in 2017-19.

As leader of Penn State, Barron oversees a research enterprise of more than $1.01 billion and 24 campus locations. His responsibilities include oversight of two law schools, the internationally recognized online educational enterprise known as Penn State World Campus, and a nearly $2 billion health enterprise, including the Penn State College of Medicine, the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center and the Penn State Health network, which extends throughout Central Pennsylvania. Penn State's current enrollment is approximately 97,000 students, and the University boasts the world's largest dues-paying alumni association in the world.

During his tenure as president of Penn State, Barron has prioritized access and affordability; diversity, equity and inclusion; student engagement; economic development; job creation and student career success; technological innovation; and the arts.

Under Barron's leadership, Penn State has achieved record-setting results in the University's fundraising campaign, A Greater Penn State for 21st Century Excellence. Penn State has now raised more than $1.7 billion of the $2.1 billion goal.

Barron's Invent Penn State initiative supports investment in entrepreneurship and innovation programs, tools and resources that accelerate the movement of great ideas to the marketplace and make a substantial economic development impact in Pennsylvania and beyond. Since its inception in 2015, Invent Penn State has partnered with the University's campuses across the Commonwealth to open 21 LaunchBox and innovation hubs available to the surrounding communities. These hubs have provided resources to more than 3,325 entrepreneurs, engaged more than 9,360 students in entrepreneurial thinking and startups, graduated 345 startup teams from accelerator programs, resourced 247 product development projects, and created more than 194 new jobs.

SANDY BARBOUR

Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics
Wake Forest '81 (B.A.)
Massachusetts '83 (M.S.)
Northwestern '91 (M.B.A.)

Recognized as one of the nation's premier Athletic Directors, Sandy Barbour, enters her eighth year as the dynamic leader of the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics program. With student success and comprehensive excellence as a steadfast focus, Barbour has helped the Nittany Lions continue to ascend and thrive as one of the nation's most successful athletic departments.

Barbour began her passionate and effective leadership of the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics program in August 2014. President Eric J. Barron named Barbour the Nittany Lions' ninth Director of Athletics after she served for 10 years as Director of Athletics at the University of California, Berkeley.

In February 2019, Barbour received a contract extension through August 31, 2023 and assumed the title of Penn State Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics.

"Sandy has consistently promoted excellence in intercollegiate athletics — in academics and athletic competitions, and she is widely hailed among the best athletic directors in the nation," Barron said at the time of her contract extension. "She is a powerful advocate for those who wear the blue and white, and her leadership has help advance our shared vision of what intercollegiate athletics can be. I'm proud of our student-athletes, the coaches and staff, and I'm very pleased that Sandy will be able to lead them to even greater success."

Leader of Premier Athletic Department in Academic, Athletic and Community Engagement

One of the nation's most highly-respected Athletic Directors, Barbour has more than 40 years of varied experiences as a collegiate administrator and coach, with a demonstrated record of championships, academic success, innovation, facility modernization and revenue growth.

Barbour directs one of the nation's most comprehensive and successful athletic programs that boasts an NCAA Graduation Success Rate of 92 percent, while capturing 79 national championships and 116 Big Ten titles all-time. She oversees a broad-based program that supports approximately 800 students in 31 sports (16 men's/15 women's) and an Intercollegiate Athletics staff of more than 300 whose daily mission is preparing students for a lifetime of impact. Penn State's 31 programs are tied for fourth-largest among all 130 FBS institutions.

During Barbour's initial seven years of leadership in Happy Valley, Penn State student-athletes have consistently raised the bar and broken or tied school academic records, including the number of Academic All-Big Ten and Big Ten Distinguished Scholar recipients. A total of 140 Nittany Lion students graduated during the 2020 fall and 2021 spring semesters. A combined total of 1,064 student-athletes have earned their degrees during Barbour's tenure.

The 2020-21 athletic year was unlike any others in the history of collegiate athletics. Barbour served as the co-chair of the medical subcommittee on the Big Ten's Return to Competition Task Force, which developed stringent medical protocols to ensure the health and safety of student-athletes while returning to sport. Despite the unprecedented circumstances, the Nittany Lion women's soccer team claimed the Big Ten regular-season championship, wrestling earned a share of the Big Ten dual meet title, women's hockey won its first CHA regular-season crown and men's volleyball won the EIVA regular-season and tournament championships. Under Barbour's direction, Penn State has won six NCAA Championships and 36 conference crowns.

In addition to the competitive and academic achievements, Barbour has taken pride in the diversity and inclusion work done by the department and its student-athletes. In 2020-21, Barbour set action steps for intercollegiate athletics to continue the work of fostering and advancing a diverse, inclusive and respectful environment where staff, coaches, student-athletes and all other members of the Penn State family feel supported. Penn State United was introduced to construct a culture of respect, appreciation and empathy for all differences, while recognizing we are rooted in diversity, shared experience and hope. Under Barbour, Penn State Athletics' Advisory Council for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (ACDEI) has expanded its work, providing diversity and inclusion resources to staff and student-athletes, and will continue Barbour's action steps by listening, taking action and supporting growth and change.

SANDY BARBOUR

Nittany Lions Students are the "Why" for Penn State Athletics

Soon after her arrival at Penn State, Barbour began to implement her vision for Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics and creating conditions for success for the department's purpose and "Why" – the more than 800 Nittany Lion student-athletes.

Six months into her tenure, Barbour announced a reorganization of ICA that introduced a more vertical structure to encourage communication and collaboration across functional units and sports. Four administrative divisions were formed: student-athlete performance, health and welfare; external relations and operations, administration and business and finance.

In 2015, Penn State Athletics launched a wide-ranging strategic planning process and conducted a series of town hall meetings. Students, faculty and staff, alumni, donors and the public were presented with the initial findings and were presented with an opportunity to provide feedback. The project helped determine strategies and priorities for the formalized strategic plan.

Barbour also oversees a comprehensive facilities master plan, which was announced in March 2017. Penn State partnered with Populous, one of the world's leading architecture and sport event planning firms, to collaborate on developing a comprehensive facilities master plan to provide a 20-year road map for addressing current and long-term needs for all of the Nittany Lions' facilities (competition, practice, performance enhancement and training).

Less than two months after the facilities master plan was unveiled in 2017, Penn State announced a $3.55 million gift from men's lacrosse letterman and graduate Ken Panzer and his business partner, Jordan Kaplan, to launch construction on a new lacrosse facility. The project transformed the Penn State Lacrosse Field into one of the top lacrosse venues in the nation when Panzer Stadium opened to rave reviews in 2019.

Since the first Lasch Football Building renovation project was announced in January 2015, Barbour has helped raise more than $32 million for the Football Excellence Fund to finance several phased upgrades of the football facilities, including a $48.5 million phase, currently under construction and slated for completion in time for the 2022 season.

During Barbour's tenure, Penn State Athletics has had four of the top seven fundraising years in department history.

Barbour initiated the additional utilization of ICA's physical assets, resulting in the first NHL pre-season games in Pegula Ice Arena and the initial concert in Beaver Stadium – the Happy Valley Jam, featuring Blake Shelton, in July 2017. Pegula Ice Arena has also hosted three NHL preseason contests, all featuring the Buffalo Sabres, since 2016.

Academic Excellence Among Record-Setting Achievements; 92 Percent NCAA Graduation Rate

Penn State student-athletes have consistently delivered academic excellence and record performances during Barbour's tenure.

In November 2020, the NCAA released its annual national graduation rates study, which disclosed that Penn State student-athletes earned a school-record Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 92 percent, marking the fourth consecutive year of a GSR of 90 percent or higher. The GSR was the fourth-straight record-breaking or record-tying effort in department history. Nine Nittany Lion teams earned a perfect 100 percent Graduation Success Rate.

Nittany Lion students posted a 3.51 grade-point average, and all 31 teams had a 3.30 GPA or higher following the 2020 fall semester with the University's COVID-19 alternative grading system in place. In the fall semester, 742 student-athletes posted at least at 3.0 GPA, and 327 were named to the Dean's List for earning at least a 3.5 GPA (minimum 12 credits).

For the fourth consecutive year, more than 350 Penn State student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors with 446 Nittany Lions posting a 3.0 GPA or higher in 2020-21.

Starting with the 2014 fall semester, Barbour's first as Penn State AD, Penn State student-athletes have achieved the 10 highest semesters all-time for the number of students earning at least a 3.0 GPA (please note: record performances do not include spring 2020, fall 2020 and spring 2021 due to COVID-19 alternative grading system).

Six NCAA Team Championships and 36 Conference Titles

In the seven years Barbour has led Penn State Athletics, the Nittany Lions have captured six NCAA Championships in women's soccer, women's volleyball and wrestling and won 28 Big Ten titles, seven EIVA crowns and one CHA championship for a total of 36 conference championships.

In 2020-21, the Nittany Lion women's soccer team claimed its 20th Big Ten regular-season title, marking the first regular-season crown for the women's soccer team since 2018 and 11th under head coach Erica Dambach. The wrestling team won a share of the Big Ten dual meet championship for the seventh time with a 6-0 record. The women's hockey team claimed their first CHA regular-season title with a 16-2-2 conference record. The women's hockey squad becomes the 27th Penn State team to win a conference championship.

The men's volleyball squad claimed its 35th EIVA regular-season title and 32nd EIVA Tournament championships with a 22-4 record. The Nittany Lions made their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2017 and earned their first win since the 2015 season with a first-round win over Belmont Abbey.

A total of 24 Penn student-athletes have won NCAA individual national championships since 2016-17, including a combined total of 18 the past three years from six different sports. Fencer Ryan Griffiths earned the NCAA epee individual title in 2020-21, while Roman Bravo-Young (133 lbs), Nick Lee (141 lbs), Carter Starocci (174 lbs) and Aaron Brooks (184 lbs) guided the Nittany Lions wrestlers to a perfect 4-for-4 effort on NCAA Championship night.

In 2020-21, five Nittany Lions claimed Big Ten individual titles to give Penn State 41 individual champions in the past four years. Swimmer Michael Daly won the 400 IM, while Aaron Brooks captured his second Big Ten crown with a victory at 184 pounds. At the Big Ten Indoor Track & Field Championships, Dom Perretta won his second 800-meter title, while Sincere Rhea on the men's 60-meter hurdles and Victoria Vanriele won the women's 800 meters for a Penn State sweep in the event.

Penn State Athletics has finished in the top 10 twice and top 15 three times in the final Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup standings under Barbour's direction. Penn State also was ranked No. 8 among the nation's 65 Power Five institutions in 2017-18, according to Yahoo! Sports.

Nittany Lion Student-Athletes Engaged in Community and 40-plus Organizations

In addition to their academic and athletic achievements, student-athletes have helped support Penn State's comprehensive excellence by investing in themselves through ICA's Student-Athlete Welfare and Development programming with the Athletic Director's Leadership Institute (ADLI), the Nittany's, SAAB, financial literacy and career networking programs. In addition, Penn State student-athletes spend thousands of hours each year involved in community engagement. Nittany Lion students annually participate in a range of activities from clinics and visits and team up with more than 40 organizations on projects and events. Among the organizations Penn State student-athletes are involved are THON, Special Olympics, Uplifting Athletes, Pennsylvania Pink Zone, Coaches vs. Cancer, United Way Day of Caring and LifeLink.

AD of the Year Recipient in 2016-17 and Finalist in 2018

Barbour's leadership was recognized with her selection for the prestigious National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Under Armour AD of the Year Award in 2016-17, having directed Penn State to nine conference championships and one NCAA title. She was among four Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Athletic Directors to be honored at the 2017 NACDA Convention, marking the second time in her career she had received the NACDA honor.

In 2020, Barbour was among the honorees on Sports Illustrated's "The Unrelenting" list of the most powerful, most influential and most outstanding women in sports.

In 2018, she was named one of five finalists for Sports Business Journal's prestigious Athletic Director of the Year. Barbour, the recent chair of the Big Ten Athletic Directors, was recognized at the 11th Annual SBJ Sports Business Awards Gala in New York City in May, the second time she's been a finalist for SBJ's Athletic Director of the Year.

SANDY BARBOUR

Barbour is a member of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and in 2017, she was selected as one of the inaugural members of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee's (USOC) Collegiate Sports Sustainability Think Tank. The Think Tank is charged with bridging the gap between high-contributing collegiate stakeholders and the Olympic Movement.

Barbour will serve as the chair of the NCAA's Football Oversight Committee in 2021-22 and will also represent the Big Ten Conference on the NCAA Management Council.

Recognized by Forbes Among Top Executives in Sports

Forbes has recognized Barbour twice in recent years among the top executives in sports. In 2018, Barbour was selected No. 13 among the Most Powerful Women in Sports. She was among four executives listed who work primarily in intercollegiate athletics and was the highest ranked Athletic Director -- No. 2 overall in college sports.

In 2015, Forbes named Barbour one of the Top 25 Most Powerful People in College Sports, ranking among six Athletic Directors and two female administrators on the list. Forbes said that Barbour "has developed a reputation for being one of the most forward-thinking administrators in all of college sports."

Ten Years Leading Cal Athletics to Consistent Comprehensive Excellence

The Director of Athletics at Cal from 2004-14, Barbour guided the Golden Bears through one of the most successful periods in school history as the athletic department became one of the consistently elite programs in the country. Barbour's 10-year term as AD was the longest for the department since men's and women's athletics merged into a single entity in 1992.

During her tenure overseeing Cal's 30-sport program, the Golden Bears won 20 team national championships, 97 individual national titles, finished in the top 10 in the annual Learfield Directors' Cup standings six times, including a program-best third in 2011, and reached record levels in ticket sales, sponsorships and fundraising.

Among Cal's many team athletic accomplishments under Barbour's leadership were a 2006 Pac-12 co-championship and seven bowl game invitations in football; the men's basketball team's first conference title in 50 years in 2009-10; a first-ever NCAA Final Four berth in women's basketball in 2013, two trips to the national semifinals in women's volleyball and six NCAA Championships in men's and women's swimming and diving.

In 2013-14, Cal secured the largest field naming-rights deal in collegiate sports history at the time, when technology company Kabam signed on to name Kabam Field at California Memorial Stadium.

Named one of the "100 Most Influential Women in Business" in the Bay Area according to the San Francisco Business Times, NACDA named Barbour a regional Athletic Director of the Year for 2008-09 and she was a finalist for National AD of the Year at the Sports Business Awards. She also was recognized as the 2006 National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA) Division I-A National Administrator of the Year.

Prior to her tenure at Berkeley, Barbour was the deputy director of athletics at Notre Dame, serving as the university's senior athletic administrator from July 2002 to September 2004. She previously held an associate athletic director position there starting in 2000.

In her position at Notre Dame, Barbour oversaw facilities and event operations for the school's 26-sport program, including football game management and the department's two golf courses. She was also responsible for developing, maintaining and implementing Notre Dame's $127 million athletics facilities master plan.

In 1996, Barbour was appointed Tulane's director of athletics at age 36, and during her three years overseeing the program, Green Wave teams won 12 conference championships. In her first year in the position, the school captured four conference titles, a feat never before accomplished in Tulane history. She also hired Tommy Bowden as head football coach during her first year. Bowden proceeded in 1997 to post the Green Wave's first winning season (7-4) in 16 years, and then directed the school to a 12-0 record, a Conference USA championship and a No. 7 national ranking the following season as the 1998 Liberty Bowl champions. Barbour was recruited to Tulane as an associate athletic director in 1991.

Born in Annapolis, Md., Barbour grew up in a military family. Her father was a career aviator in the U.S. Navy, and her family lived in various U.S. locations as well as in Western Europe during her childhood.

Barbour graduated cum laude in 1981 with a B.S. degree in physical education from Wake Forest University, where she was a four-year letterwinner and served as captain of the field hockey team. She also played two seasons of women's basketball for the Demon Deacons.

Barbour earned advanced degrees at the University of Massachusetts (an M.S. in sports management in 1983) and Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management (an MBA in 1991). Barbour's career in intercollegiate athletics began as a field hockey assistant coach and lacrosse administrative assistant at Massachusetts in 1981.

Between master's programs, Barbour served as assistant field hockey and lacrosse coach at Northwestern from 1982-84. She also held the position of director of recruiting services during that period, before being promoted to assistant athletic director for intercollegiate programs in 1984, a position she held until 1989.

Prior to joining Tulane, Barbour worked in programming and production for FOX Sports Net in Chicago during the summer of 1990.

BRYCE JORDAN CENTER

The Bryce Jordan Center played host to a sell-out crowd vs. Minnesota on Feb. 8, 2020, for "Everyone is Awesome Day."

Located on the University Park campus of the Pennsylvania State University, the Bryce Jordan Center is central Pennsylvania's premiere sports and entertainment facility. The 15,000+ seat arena is the only facility of its size in the region and is home to the Penn State Men's and Women's NCAA Division I Basketball Teams.

Located next to the University's 106,572 seat Beaver Stadium, the Bryce Jordan Center has a bi-level design, which gives it a lower profile and complements the curve of nearby landmark Nittany Mountain. Architect Rosser International Inc. of Atlanta came up with the plan, which incorporates brick and glass, helping to retain some of the university feel while taking advantage of a spectacular view.

Since its opening in 1996, the arena has hosted top-name performers in the music entertainment industry as well as family shows, sporting events, and commencements. In addition to arena bowl events, the Bryce Jordan Center's flexible meeting space can accommodate meetings, training sessions, conferences, trade shows, banquets and more.The Nittany Lions earned their first win in the new building on January 11, 1996. Over the last four years, with the support of spirited alumni, fans and the Legion of Blue student section, Penn State men's basketball has posted two of its best home win totals.

VIP boxes, a top-of-the-line computer controlled rigging system, meeting and function rooms and the goal of a "Disneyland atmosphere" when it comes to customer service was designed to help make the Bryce Jordan Center a showpiece among other university and multipurpose facilities, as well as enhance the game-day experience for basketball fans.

In 2018, The Bryce Jordan Center was recognized globally as it was ranked second in the world in concert and event tickets sold among university venues.

The popular venue recently completed a major renovation with the installation of a state-of-the-art adaptive sound system by Eastern Acoustic Works (EAW). The system, which uses 3D modeling to direct sound to all areas of the arena, is only being used in two other arenas – both NBA facilities – at this time.

Because of its high quality, this adaptive sound technology was used on Tom Petty's final tour, and is currently being used in several Broadway theaters. Additional speakers were also added under the scoreboard to enhance the sound on the floor.

The facility has hosted NBA preseason games, family shows, commencements and lectures, as well as some of the top name performers in the entertainment industry. Country superstar Garth Brooks' 2015 comeback world tour shows at the BJC sold out in just three minutes, becoming the fastest sellout in the arena's history.

Other performers who have appeared recently at the Jordan Center include the Jonas Brothers, Luke Bryan, Jay-Z, Taylor Swift, Justin Timberlake, Aerosmith, Bruce Springsteen, Kanye West, The Weeknd, Janet Jackson, Elton John, Kevin Hart and Metallica.

Penn State celebrated the 25th year in the Bryce Jordan Center's history in 2021 and the Nittany Lions earned their 250th win inside the BJC on Nov. 28, 2020 when the Nittany Lions defeated VMI 86-65.

MEDIA POLICIES

COACH AVAILABILITY

All interview requests for head coach Micah Shrewsberry should be directed to Chelsea Vielhauer in the Penn State Strategic Communications Department (email cpv5026@psu.edu or 610-937-4035).

Coach Shrewsberry will conduct a weekly press conference in person in the Bryce Jordan Center media room and will schedule zoom teleconferences, as needed, on Fridays, with some exceptions due to the competition schedule. Those wishing to be included in availabilities should contact the Strategic Communications office.

Coach Shrewsberry will hold postgame press conferences in the Bryce Jordan Center media room following each home game and on zoom at road games.

He will also make regular weekly appearances during the season on "The Penn State Coaches Show Featuring Micah Shrewsberry Presented by Pepsi" weekly radio show from 6:05-7:00 p.m. The show is broadcast live on location at The Field Burger and Tap in State College and show dates will be listed in the game notes.

Coach Shrewsberry is not available on the day prior to a game or on game day prior to tip-off.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Prior to game day, all player interviews must be arranged through the strategic communications office at least 48 hours in advance. Players are not available on the day prior to a game or on game day prior to tip-off.

Players may be scheduled as available for one-on-one interviews and will return phone calls only upon approval by Strategic Communications. Player phone numbers will not be released.

During the season, player interviews are generally conducted following Coach Shrewsberry's weekly press conference. Times and dates are subject to change.

Penn State's locker room is closed. Following games, selected requested Penn State players will be brought to the postgame media interview room.

PENN STATE PRACTICES

Penn State practices are closed, unless announced otherwise by the Strategic Communications office in conjunction with interviews. Selected practices throughout the season may be open to the media for more extended periods.

SERVICES

Wireless internet is available in the BJC with the log-in at your seat and posted in the media room on game days. Live stats will be available on StatBroadcast.

GoPSUsports.com is the official website of Penn State Athletics. All releases, game stories, notes, biographies, features, videos and statistics are available on the website. Penn State will provide game notes prior to all contests online on the media center page and in the media room.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Only working media members will be issued credentials and receive parking for games in the Bryce Jordan Center. Access to media row, the media work room and media meals is limited to credentialed media only. Credential requests must be submitted via the application form (gopsusports.com/mbbmedia). Please submit requests at least a week in advance.

Media credentials which cannot be mailed will be left at Media Will Call (Media & Show Entrance) located on the event level of the Jordan Center adjacent to the large truckway that faces Mount Nittany and the outdoor track (off Dauer Drive). Penn State is a member of the Big Ten Conference and all policies will conform to Big Ten guidelines. Abuse of credentials will be grounds for removal and revocation of said credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

SCOUTS

Penn State will provide a credential upon request for professional scouts to enter the building, sit on press row and provide access to the media work room, notes and stats.

TO ORDER A PHONE LINE

Members of the media must make their own arrangements for a dedicated telephone for their outlet. To order a phone line call Verizon at 800-479-1919 or 215-571-8217. Address to provide: AHN1@ E. College Ave., State College.

RADIO, TV & DIGITAL BROADCASTS

Thank you for your coverage of Penn State Athletics. As stated in the Big Ten Conference and Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics credential policy, the Big Ten holds all rights to television, internet and wireless distribution at all Penn State home athletic competition events.

Reminders and restrictions for covering Penn State Athletics events, including live stream policy, is available here: GoPSUsports.com/broadcastrights.

Facilities are assigned in accordance with Big Ten guidelines. Radio booths and phone lines are available for the Penn State Sports Network and the opponent's radio network.

Student stations are assigned locations as available. A courtesy line is available for the primary radio outlet in suite C22, located off the concourse level. Additional phone lines may be installed at the outlet's expense.
